(4) The validity of an allotment shall not be affected by any contravention of the foregoing provisions of this section but, in the event of any such contravention, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine.

(5) In the application of this section to a prospectus offering shares or debentures for sale, the foregoing subsections shall have effect with the substitution of references to sale for references to allotment, and with the substitution for the reference to the company and every officer of the company who is in default of a reference to any person by or through whom the offer is made and who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits the contravention.

(6) An application for shares in or debentures of a company which is made in pursuance of a prospectus issued generally shall not be revocable until after the expiration of the 5th day after the time of the opening of the subscription lists, or the giving before the expiration of the said 5th day, by some person responsible under section 40 for the prospectus, of a public notice having the effect under that section of excluding or limiting the responsibility of the person giving it.

(7) In reckoning for the purposes of this section and section 44B the 3rd or 5th day after another day, any intervening day which is a Saturday or Sunday or which is a general holiday in Hong Kong shall be disregarded, and if the 3rd or 5th day (as so reckoned) is itself a Saturday or Sunday or such a holiday there shall for the said purposes be substituted the 1st day thereafter which is none of them.

Allotment of shares and debentures to be listed on stock exchange

44B.(1) Where a prospectus, whether issued generally or not, states that application has been or will be made for permission for the shares or debentures offered thereby to be listed on any stock exchange, any allotment made on an application in pursuance of the prospectus shall, whenever made, be void if the permission has not been applied for before the 3rd day after the first issue of the prospectus or if the permission has been refused before the expiration of 3 weeks from the date of the closing of the subscription lists or such longer period not exceeding 6 weeks as may, within the said 3 weeks, be notified to the applicant for permission by or on behalf of the stock exchange.

(2) Where the permission has not been applied for as aforesaid, or has been refused as aforesaid, the company shall forthwith repay without interest all money received from applicants in pursuance the prospectus, and, if any such money is not repaid within 8 days after the company becomes liable to repay it, the directors of the company shall be jointly and severally liable to repay that money with interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from the expiration of the 8th day:

Provided that a director shall not be liable if he proves that the default in the repayment of the money was not due to any misconduct or negligence on his part.

(3) All money received as aforesaid shall be kept in a separate bank account so long as the company may become liable to repay it under subsection (2); and, if default is made in complying with this subsection, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine.

(4) Any condition requiring or binding any applicant for shares or debentures to waive compliance with any requirement of this section shall be void.

(5) For the purposes of this section, permission shall not be deemed to be refused if it is intimated that the application for it, though not at present granted, will be given further consideration.

(6) This section shall have effect -

- (a)* in relation to any shares or debentures agreed to be taken by a person underwriting an offer thereof by a prospectus as if he had applied therefor in pursuance of the prospectus; and
- (b)* in relation to a prospectus offering shares for sale with the following modifications, that is to say -
 - (i)* references to sale shall be substituted for references to allotment;
 - (ii)* the persons by whom the offer is made, and not the company, shall be liable under subsection (2) to repay money received from applicants, and references to the company's liability under that subsection shall be construed accordingly; and
 - (iii)* for the reference in subsection (3) to the company and every officer of the company who is in default there shall be substituted a reference to any person by or through whom the offer is made and who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits the default.

Return as to allotments

45.(1) Whenever a company limited by shares or a company limited by guarantee and having a share capital makes any allotment of its shares, the company shall within 1 month thereafter deliver to the Registrar for registration -

- (a) a return of the allotments in the specified form, in English or Chinese, stating the number and nominal amount of the shares comprised in the allotment, the names and addresses of the allottees, and the amount, if any, paid or due and payable on each share whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium; and
- (b) in the case of shares allotted as fully or partly paid up otherwise than in cash, or allotted in consideration of a premium paid or payable wholly or partly otherwise than in cash, a copy of a contract in writing constituting the title of the allottee to the allotment together with a copy of any contract for sale, or for services or other consideration in respect of which that allotment was made, such copies being duly certified by an officer of the company to be true copies, and a return stating the number and nominal amount of shares so allotted, the extent to which they are to be treated as paid up, the extent to which premium paid or payable wholly or partly otherwise than in cash is to be treated as paid, and the consideration for which they have been allotted.

(1A) Notwithstanding subsection (1) -

- (a) where shares are allotted credited as fully or partly paid up otherwise than in cash in pursuance of a scheme of arrangement under section 166, the delivery to the Registrar under that section of an office copy of the order of the court sanctioning the scheme shall be a sufficient compliance with the requirements of subsection (1)(b);
- (b) where shares are allotted credited as fully paid up on a capitalization, the delivery by the company to the Registrar of a copy of the resolution authorizing the allotment shall be a sufficient compliance with the requirements of subsection (1)(b).

(2) Where such a contract as mentioned in subsection (1)(b) is not reduced to writing, the company shall within 1 month after the allotment deliver to the Registrar for registration a return in the specified form containing the particulars of the contract specified in that subsection.

(3) If default is made in complying with this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a default fine and, for continued default, to a daily default fine:

Provided that, in case of default in delivering to the Registrar any document within 1 month after the allotment any document required to be delivered by this section, the company, or any person liable for the default, may apply to the court for relief, and the court, if satisfied that the omission to deliver the document was accidental or due to inadvertence or that it is just and equitable to grant relief, may make an order extending the time for the delivery of the document for such period as the court may think proper.

Commissions and Discounts

Power to pay certain commissions, and prohibition of payment of all other commissioners, discounts, &c.

46.(1) It shall be lawful for a company to pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the company if -

- (a) the payment of the commission is authorized by the articles; and
- (b) the commission paid or agreed to be paid does not exceed 10 per cent of the price at which the shares are issued or the amount or rate authorized by the articles, whichever is the less; and
- (c) the amount or rate per cent of the commission paid or agreed to be paid is -

- (i) in the case of shares offered to the public for subscription, disclosed in the prospectus; or
 - (ii) in the case of shares not offered to the public for subscription, disclosed in the statement in lieu of prospectus, or in a statement in the specified form signed in like manner as a statement in lieu of prospectus and delivered before the payment of the commission to the Registrar for registration, and, where a circular or notice, not being a prospectus, inviting subscription for the shares is issued, also disclosed in that circular or notice; and
- (d) the number of shares which persons have agreed for a commission to subscribe absolutely is disclosed in manner aforesaid.

(2) Save as aforesaid, no company shall apply any of its shares or capital money either directly or indirectly in payment of any commission, discount, or allowance, to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares of the company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the company, whether the shares or money be so applied by being added to the purchase money of any property acquired by the company or to the contract price of any work to be executed for the company, or the money be paid out of the nominal purchase money or contract price, or otherwise.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the power of any company to pay such brokerage as it has heretofore been lawful for a company to pay.

(4) A vendor to, promoter of, or other person who receives payment in money or shares from, a company shall have and shall be deemed always to have had power to apply any part of the money or shares so received in payment of any commission, the payment of which, if made directly by the company, would have been legal under this section.

(5) If default is made in complying with the provisions of this section relating to the delivery to the Registrar of the statement in the specified form, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine.

47D.(1) In the case of a listed company, section 47C(4) authorizes the giving of financial assistance only if the company has net assets which are not thereby reduced or, to the extent that those assets are thereby reduced, if the assistance is provided out of distributable profits.

(2) For this purpose the following definitions apply -

- (a) “net assets” means the amount by which the aggregate of the company’s assets exceeds the aggregate of its liabilities (taking the amount of both assets and liabilities to be as stated in the company’s accounting records immediately before the financial assistance is given);
- (b) “liabilities” includes any amount retained as reasonably necessary for the purpose of providing for any liability or loss which is either likely to be incurred, or certain to be incurred but uncertain as to the amount or as to the date on which it will arise.

Unlisted Companies

Relaxation of section 47A for unlisted companies

47E.(1) Section 47A does not prohibit an unlisted company from giving financial assistance in a case where the acquisition of shares in question is or was an acquisition of shares in the company or, if it is a subsidiary of another unlisted company, in that other company if the following provisions of this section, and sections 47F to 48, are complied with as respects the giving of that assistance.

(2) The financial assistance may only be given if the company has net assets which are not thereby reduced or, to the extent that they are reduced, if the assistance is provided out of distributable profits and section 47D(2) applies for the interpretation of this subsection.

(3) This section does not permit financial assistance to be given by a subsidiary, in a case where the acquisition of shares in question is or was an acquisition of shares in its holding company, if it is also a subsidiary of a listed company which is itself a subsidiary of that holding company.

(4) Unless the company proposing to give the financial assistance is a wholly-owned subsidiary, the giving of assistance under this section shall be approved by special resolution of the company in general meeting.

(5) Where the financial assistance is to be given by the company in a case where the acquisition of shares in question is or was an acquisition of shares in its holding company, that holding company and any other company which is both the company’s holding company and a subsidiary of that other holding company (except, in any case, a company which is a wholly-owned subsidiary) shall also approve by special resolution in general meeting the giving of the financial assistance.

(6) A majority of the directors of the company proposing to give the financial assistance and, where the shares acquired or to be acquired are shares in its holding company, a majority of the directors of that company and of any other company which is both the company's holding company and a subsidiary of that other holding company shall before the financial assistance is given make a statement complying with section 47F.

(7) In relation to a resolution agreed to, or proposed to be agreed to, in accordance with section 116B giving approval under subsection (4) or (5), section 47G(1)(a) shall not apply, but the statement referred to in subsection (6) shall be supplied -

- (a) to each member by whom, or on whose behalf, the resolution is required to be signed in accordance with section 116B; and
- (b) at or before the time at which the resolution is supplied to the member for signature.

Directors' statement under section 47E

47F.(1) The statement referred to in section 47E(6) shall be in the specified form, shall be signed by the directors and shall state -

- (a) the form which such assistance is to take;
- (b) the names and addresses of the persons to whom such assistance is to be given;
- (c) the purpose for which the company intends those persons to use such assistance;
- (d) that the directors making the statement have formed the opinion, as regards the company's initial situation immediately following the date on which the assistance is proposed to be given, that there will be no ground on which it could then be found to be unable to pay its debts; and either -
 - (i) if it is intended to commence the winding up of the company within 12 months of that date, that the company will be able to pay its debts in full within 12 months of the commencement of the winding up; or
 - (ii) in any other case, that the company will be able to pay its debts as they fall due during the year immediately following that date.

(2) In forming their opinion for purposes of subsection (1)(d), the directors shall take into account the same liabilities (including contingent and prospective liabilities) as would be relevant under section 177 to the question whether the company is unable to pay its debts.

(3) A statement made by a majority of a company's directors under section 47E(6) shall be delivered to the Registrar within 15 days after it is made.

(4) If a company fails to comply with subsection (3), the company and every officer who is in default is liable to a fine and, for continued default, to a daily default fine.

(5) A director of a company who makes a statement under section 47E(6) without having reasonable grounds for the opinion expressed in it is liable to imprisonment or a fine.

Special resolution under section 47E

47G.(1) A special resolution required by section 47E to be passed by a company approving the giving of financial assistance shall be passed on the date on which a majority of the directors of that company make the statement required by section 47E(6) in connection with the giving of that assistance, or within 30 days immediately following that date.

(2) Where such a resolution has been passed, an application may be made to the court for the cancellation of the resolution -

- (a) by the holders of not less in the aggregate than 10% in nominal value of the company's issued share capital or any class of it; or
- (b) if the company is not limited by shares, by not less than 10% of the company's members, but the application shall not be made by a person who has consented to or voted in favour of the resolution.

(3) The application shall be made within 28 days after the passing of the resolution and may be made on behalf of the persons entitled to make the application by such one or more of their number as they may appoint in writing for the purpose.

(4) If such an application is made, the company shall forthwith give notice in the specified form of that fact to the Registrar.

(5) On the hearing of the application, the court shall make an order either cancelling or confirming the resolution and -

- (a) may make that order on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, and may (if it thinks fit) adjourn the proceedings in order that an arrangement may be made to the satisfaction of the court for the purchase of the interests of dissentient members; and
- (b) may give such directions and make such orders as it thinks expedient for facilitating or carrying into effect any such arrangement.

(6) The court's order may, if the court thinks fit, provide for the purchase by the company of the shares of any of its members and for the reduction accordingly of the company's capital, and may make such alterations in the company's memorandum and articles as may be required in consequence of that provision.

(7) The company shall, within 15 days from the making of the court's order, or within such longer period as the court may at any time by order direct, deliver to the Registrar an office copy of the order.

(8) If the court's order requires the company not to make any, or any specified, alteration in its memorandum or articles, the company shall not then have power without the leave of the court to make any such alteration in breach of the requirement.

(9) An alteration in the memorandum or articles made by virtue of an order under this section, if not made by resolution of the company, is of the same effect as if duly made by resolution; and this Ordinance applies accordingly to the memorandum or articles as so altered.

(10) A company which fails to comply with subsection (4) or (7), and any officer who is in default, is liable to a fine and, for continued default, to a daily default fine.

(11) A special resolution passed by a company is not effective for purposes of section 47E -

- (a) unless the statement required by section 47E(6) is available for inspection by members of the company at the meeting at which the resolution is passed;
- (b) if it is cancelled by the court on an application under this section.

Time for giving financial assistance under section 47E

48.(1) This section applies as to the time before and after which financial assistance may not be given by a company in pursuance of section 47E.

(2) Where a special resolution is required by that section to be passed approving the giving of the assistance, the assistance shall not be given before the expiry of the period of 4 weeks beginning with -

- (a) the date on which the special resolution is passed; or
- (b) where more than one such resolution is passed, the date on which the last of them is passed, unless for that resolution (or, if more than one, each of them), every member of the company which passed the resolution who is entitled to vote at general meetings of the company voted in favour of the resolution.

(3) If application for the cancellation of any such resolution is made under section 47G, the financial assistance shall not be given before the final determination of the application unless the court otherwise orders.

(4) The assistance shall not be given after the expiry of the period of 3 months beginning with -

- (a) the date on which the majority of the directors of the company proposing to give the assistance made their statement under section 47E(6); or
- (b) where that company is a subsidiary and both a majority of its directors and a majority of the directors of any of its holding companies made such a statement, the date on which the earliest of the statements was made, unless the court, on an application under section 47G, otherwise orders.

Construction of References to offering Shares or Debentures to the Public

Construction of references to offering shares or debentures to the public

48A.(1) Any reference in this Ordinance to offering shares or debentures to the public shall, subject to any provision to the contrary contained therein, be construed as including a reference to offering them to any section of the public, whether selected as members or debenture holders of the company concerned or as clients of the person issuing the prospectus or in any other manner, and references in this Ordinance or in a company's articles to invitations to the public to subscribe for shares or debentures shall, subject as aforesaid, be similarly construed.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not be taken as requiring any offer or invitation to be treated as made to the public if it can properly be regarded, in all the circumstances, as not being calculated to result, directly or indirectly, in the shares or debentures becoming available for subscription or purchase by persons other than those receiving the offer or invitation, or otherwise as being a domestic concern of the persons making and receiving it, and in particular -

- (a) a provision in a company's articles prohibiting invitations to the public to subscribe for shares or debentures shall not be taken as prohibiting the making to members or debenture holders of an invitation which can properly be regarded as aforesaid; and
- (b) the provisions of this Ordinance relating to private companies shall be construed accordingly.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the provisions of the Seventeenth Schedule shall not be construed to prejudice the generality of this section.

Issue of Shares at Premium, Redeemable Preference Shares, and Shares at Discount

Application of premiums received on issue of shares

48B.(1) Where a company issues shares at a premium, whether for cash or otherwise, a sum equal to the aggregate amount or value of the premiums on those shares shall be transferred to an account, to be called “the share premium account”, and the provisions of this Ordinance relating to the reduction of the share capital of a company shall, except as provided in this section, apply as if the share premium account were paid-up share capital of the company.

(2) Where shares are issued for a consideration other than cash and the value of the consideration, as estimated by the directors having regard to all relevant information, is in excess of the amount credited as paid up on the shares so issued, the shares shall be deemed to have been issued at a premium equal to the difference between the value so estimated and the amount credited as paid up on the shares so issued.

(3) The share premium account may, notwithstanding anything in subsection (1), be applied by the company -

- (a) in paying up unissued shares of the company to be issued to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares; or
- (b) in writing off -

 - (i) the preliminary expenses of the company; or
 - (ii) the expenses of, or the commission paid or discount allowed on, any issue of shares of the company.
- (c) Repealed

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the expenses of the issue of any shares shall be deemed to include such portion of the ad valorem fee paid under the Eighth Schedule by the company upon its registration or upon any increase thereafter in its nominal share capital as is attributable to the nominal amount of the shares issued.

(5) Where a company has before the commencement of the Companies (Amendment) (No. 4) Ordinance 1974 (80 of 1974) issued any shares at a premium, this section shall apply as if the shares had been issued after the commencement of that Ordinance:

Provided that any part of the premiums which has been so applied that it does not at the commencement of that Ordinance form an identifiable part of the company’s reserves within the meaning of the Tenth Schedule shall be disregarded in determining the sum to be included in the share premium account.

(6) Sections 48C and 48D give relief from the requirements of this section, and in those sections references to the issuing company are to the company issuing shares as mentioned in this section.

Merger Relief

Merger relief

48C.(1) With the exception made by section 48D(6), this section applies where the issuing company has secured at least a 90 per cent equity holding in another company in pursuance of an arrangement providing for the allotment of equity shares in the issuing company on terms that the consideration for the shares allotted is to be provided -

- (a) by the issue or transfer to the issuing company of equity shares in the other company; or
- (b) by the cancellation of any such shares not held by the issuing company.

(2) If the equity shares in the issuing company allotted in pursuance of the arrangement in consideration for the acquisition or cancellation of equity shares in the other company are issued at a premium, section 48B does not apply to the premiums on those shares.

(3) Where the arrangement also provides for the allotment of any shares in the issuing company on terms that the consideration for those shares is to be provided by the issue or transfer to the issuing company of non-equity shares in the other company or by the cancellation of any such shares in that company not held by the issuing company, relief under subsection (2) extends to any shares in the issuing company allotted on those terms in pursuance of the arrangement.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), the issuing company is to be regarded for the purposes of this section as having secured at least a 90 per cent equity holding in another company in pursuance of such an arrangement as is mentioned in subsection (1) if in consequence of an acquisition or cancellation of equity shares in that company (in pursuance of that arrangement) it holds equity shares in that company (whether all or any of those shares were acquired in pursuance of that arrangement, or not) of an aggregate nominal value equal to 90 per cent or more of the nominal value of that company's equity share capital.

(5) Where the equity share capital of the other company is divided into different classes of shares, this section does not apply unless the requirements of subsection (1) are satisfied in relation to each of those classes of shares taken separately.

(6) Shares held by a company which is the issuing company's holding company or subsidiary, or a subsidiary of the issuing company's holding company, or by its or their nominees, are to be regarded for the purposes of this section as held by the issuing company.

(7) In relation to a company and its shares and capital, the following definitions apply for the purposes of this section -

“arrangement” means any agreement, scheme or arrangement, including an arrangement sanctioned under section 166 or 237;

“equity shares” means shares comprised in the company's issued share capital (excluding any part of such capital which carries no right to participate beyond a specified amount in a distribution of either profits or capital);

Relief in respect of group reconstructions

48D.(1) This section applies where the issuing company -

- (a) is a wholly-owned subsidiary of another company (“the holding company”); and
- (b) allots shares to the holding company or to another wholly-owned subsidiary of the holding company in consideration for the transfer to the issuing company of assets other than cash, being assets of any company (“the transferor company”) which is a member of the group of companies which comprises the holding company and all its wholly-owned subsidiaries.

(2) Where the shares in the issuing company allotted in consideration for the transfer are issued at a premium, the issuing company is not required by section 48B to transfer any amount in excess of the minimum premium value to the share premium account.

(3) In subsection (2), “the minimum premium value” means the amount (if any) by which the base value of the consideration for the shares allotted exceeds the aggregate nominal value of those shares.

(4) For the purpose of subsection (3), the base value of the consideration for the shares allotted is the amount by which the base value of the assets transferred exceeds the base value of any liabilities of the transferor company assumed by the issuing company as part of the consideration for the assets transferred.

(5) For the purpose of subsection (4) -

(a) the base value of the assets transferred is to be taken as -

(i) the cost of those assets to the transferor company; or

(ii) the amount at which those assets are stated in the transferor company’s accounting records immediately before the transfer,

whichever is the less; and

(b) the base value of the liabilities assumed is to be taken as the amount at which they are stated in the transferor company’s accounting records immediately before the transfer.

Provisions supplementary to sections 48C and 48D

48E.(1) An amount corresponding to one representing the premiums or part of the premiums on shares issued by a company which by virtue of section 48C or 48D is not included in the company’s share premium account may also be disregarded in determining the amount at which any shares or other consideration provided for the shares issued is to be included in the company’s balance sheet.

(2) If the shares are redeemed or purchased wholly or partly out of the proceeds of a fresh issue and the aggregate amount of those proceeds is less than the aggregate nominal value of the shares redeemed or purchased, the amount of the difference shall be transferred to the capital redemption reserve.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the proceeds of the fresh issue are applied by the company in making a redemption or purchase of its own shares in addition to a payment out of capital under section 49I.

(4) The provisions of this Ordinance relating to the reduction of a company's share capital apply as if the capital redemption reserve were paid-up share capital of the company, except that the reserve may be applied by the company in paying up its unissued shares to be allotted to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares.

Redemption or purchase of own shares out of capital (private companies only)

Power of private companies to redeem or purchase own shares out of capital

49I.(1) Subject to sections 49I to 49O, a private company limited by shares or limited by guarantee and having a share capital may, if so authorized by its articles, make a payment in respect of the redemption or purchase under section 49A or (as the case may be) section 49B, of its own shares otherwise than out of its distributable profits or the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares.

- (a) any available profits of the company; and

- (b) the proceeds of any fresh issue of shares made for the purposes of the redemption or purchase, is equal to the price of redemption or purchase; and the payment permissible under this subsection is referred to in section 49S as the “permissible capital payment”.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), if the permissible capital payment for shares redeemed or purchased is less than their nominal amount, the amount of the difference shall be transferred to the company’s capital redemption reserve.

- (a) the amount of any capital redemption reserve, share premium account or fully paid share capital of the company; and
- (b) any amount representing unrealised profits of the company for the time being standing to the credit of any revaluation reserve maintained by the company, may be reduced by a sum not exceeding (or by sums not in the aggregate exceeding) the amount by which the permissible capital payment exceeds the nominal amount of the shares.

(6) Where the proceeds of a fresh issue are applied by a company in making any redemption or purchase of its own shares in addition to a payment out of capital under this section, the references in subsections (4) and (5) to the permissible capital payment are to be read as referring to the aggregate of that payment and those proceeds.

Availability of profits for purposes of section 49I

49J.(1) The reference in section 49I(3)(a) to available profits of the company is to the company’s profits which are available for distribution (within the meaning of Part IIA); but the question whether a company has any profits so available and the amount of any such profits are to be determined for purposes of that section in accordance with subsections (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6), instead of sections 79F, 79G, 79H, 79I, 79J and 79K.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), that question is to be determined by reference to -

- (a) profits, losses, assets and liabilities;
- (b) provisions for depreciation, diminution in value of assets and retentions to meet liabilities; and
- (c) share capital and reserves (including undistributable reserves), as stated in the relevant accounts for determining the permissible capital payment.

(3) The relevant accounts for this purpose are such accounts, prepared as at any date within the period for determining the amount of the permissible capital payment, as are necessary to enable a reasonable judgment to be made as to the amounts of any of the items mentioned in subsection (2)(a) to (c).

(4) For purposes of determining the amount of the permissible capital payment, the amount of the company’s available profits (if any) determined in accordance with subsections (2) and (3) is treated as reduced by the amount of any distributions lawfully made by the company after the date of the relevant accounts and before the end of the period for determining the amount of that payment.

(5) The reference in subsection (4) to distributions lawfully made by the company includes -

- (a) financial assistance lawfully given out of distributable profits in a case falling within section 47D or 47E;

- (b) any payment lawfully made by the company in respect of the purchase by it of any shares in the company (except a payment lawfully made otherwise than out of distributable profits); and
- (c) a payment of any description specified in section 49C(1) lawfully made by the company.

(6) Reference in this section to the period for determining the amount of the permissible capital payment is to the period of 3 months ending with the date on which the statement of the directors purporting to specify the amount of that payment is made in accordance with section 49K(3).

Conditions for payment out of capital

49K.(1) Subject to any order of the court under section 49O, a payment out of capital by a private company for the redemption or purchase of its own shares is not lawful unless the requirements of this section and sections 49L and 49M are satisfied.

(2) The payment out of capital shall be approved by a special resolution of the company.

(3) The company's directors shall make a statement specifying the amount of the permissible capital payment for the shares in question and stating that, having made full inquiry into the affairs and prospects of the company, they have formed the opinion -

- (a) as regards its initial situation immediately following the date on which the payment out of capital is proposed to be made, that there will be no grounds on which the company could then be found unable to pay its debts; and
- (b) as regards its prospects for the year immediately following that date, that, having regard to their intentions with respect to the management of the company's business during that year and to the amount and character of the financial resources which will in their view be available to the company during that year, the company will be able to continue to carry on business as a going concern (and will accordingly be able to pay its debts as they fall due) throughout that year.

(4) In forming their opinion for purposes of subsection (3)(a), the directors shall take into account the same liabilities (including prospective and contingent liabilities) as would be relevant under section 177 to the question whether a company is unable to pay its debts.

(5) The directors' statement shall be in the specified form, shall be signed by the directors and shall contain such information with respect to the nature of the company's business as may be specified by the Registrar, and shall in addition have annexed to it a report addressed to the directors by the company's auditors stating that -

- (a) they have inquired into the company's state of affairs;
- (b) the amount specified in the statement as the permissible capital payment for the shares in question is in their view properly determined in accordance with sections 49I and 49J; and
- (c) they are not aware of anything to indicate that the opinion expressed by the directors in the statement as to any of the matters mentioned in subsection (3) is unreasonable in all the circumstances.

(6) A director who signs a statement under this section without having reasonable grounds for the opinion expressed in the statement is liable to imprisonment or a fine, or both.

(7) In relation to a resolution agreed to, or proposed to be agreed to, in accordance with section 116B giving approval under subsection (2), then -

- (b) section 49L(4) shall not apply but the documents referred to in that section shall be supplied -
 - (i) to each member by whom, or on whose behalf, the resolution is required to be signed in accordance with section 116B; and
 - (ii) at or before the time at which the resolution is supplied to the member for signature.

(2) The resolution is ineffective if any member of the company holding shares to which the resolution relates exercises the voting rights carried by any of those shares in voting on the resolution and the resolution would not have been passed if he had not done so.

(3) For purposes of subsection (2), a member who holds such shares is to be regarded as exercising the voting rights carried by them in voting on the resolution not only if he votes in respect of them on a poll on the question whether the resolution shall be passed, but also if he votes on the resolution otherwise than on a poll; and, notwithstanding anything in a company's articles, any member of the company may demand a poll on that question.

(4) The resolution is ineffective unless the directors' statement and auditors' report required by section 49K are available for inspection by members of the company at the meeting at which the resolution is passed.

(5) For purposes of this section a vote and a demand for a poll by a person as proxy for a member are the same (respectively) as a vote and demand by the member.

(3) References in this section to the first notice date are to the day on which the company first publishes the notice required by subsection (1) or first publishes or gives the notice required by subsection (2) (whichever is the earlier).

(4) Not later than the first notice date the company shall deliver to the Registrar a copy of the directors' statement and of the auditors' report required by section 49K.

(5) The directors' statement and auditors' report -

- (a) shall be kept at the company's registered office throughout the period beginning with the first notice date and ending 5 weeks after the date of the resolution for payment out of capital; and
- (b) shall during business hours on any day during that period be open to the inspection of any member or creditor of the company without charge.

(6) If an inspection required under subsection (5) is refused, the company and every officer who is in default is liable to a fine and, for continued default, to a daily default fine.

(7) In the case of refusal of an inspection required under subsection (5) of a directors' statement or auditors' report, the court may by order compel an immediate inspection of that statement or report.

Objections by company's members or creditors

49N.(1) Where a private company passes a special resolution approving for purposes of this Ordinance any payment out of capital for the redemption or purchase of any of its shares -

- (a) any member of the company other than one who consented to or voted in favour of the resolution; and
- (b) any creditor of the company,

may within 5 weeks of the date on which the resolution was passed apply to the court for cancellation of the resolution.

(2) The application may be made on behalf of the persons entitled to make it by such one or more of their number as they may appoint in writing for the purpose.

(3) If an application is made, the company shall -

- (a) forthwith give notice in the specified form of that fact to the Registrar; and
- (b) within 15 days from the making of any order of the court on the hearing of the application, or such longer period as the court may by order direct, deliver an office copy of the order to the Registrar.

(4) A company which fails to comply with subsection (3), and any officer who is in default, is liable to a fine and for continued default, to a daily default fine.

Powers of court on application under section 49N

49O.(1) On the hearing of an application under section 49N the court may, if it thinks fit, adjourn the proceedings in order that an arrangement may be made to the court's satisfaction for the purchase of the interests of dissentient members or for the protection of dissentient creditors (as the case may be); and the court may give such directions and make such orders as it thinks expedient for facilitating or carrying into effect any such arrangement.

(2) Without prejudice to its powers under subsection (1), the court shall make an order on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit either confirming or cancelling the resolution; and, if the court confirms the resolution, it may in particular by order alter or extend any date or period of time specified in the resolution or in any provision in sections 49 to 49S which applies to the redemption or purchase of shares to which the resolution refers.

(3) The court's order may, if the court thinks fit, provide for the purchase by the company of the shares of any of its members and for the reduction accordingly of the company's capital, and may make such alterations in the company's memorandum and articles as may be required in consequence of that provision.

(4) If the court's order requires the company not to make any, or any specified, alteration in its memorandum or articles, the company shall not then have power without leave of the court to make any such alteration in breach of the requirement.

(5) An alteration in the memorandum or articles made by virtue of an order under this section, if not made by resolution of the company, is of the same effect as if duly made by resolution; and this Ordinance applies accordingly to the memorandum or articles as so altered.

Supplementary

Effect of company's failure to redeem or purchase

49P.(1) This section has effect where a company has, on or after the commencement of the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 1991 (77 of 1991) -

- (a) issued shares on terms that they are or are liable to be redeemed; or
- (b) agreed to purchase any of its own shares.

(2) The company is not liable in damages in respect of any failure on its part to redeem or purchase any of the shares.

(3) Subsection (2) is without prejudice to any right of the holder of the shares other than his right to sue the company for damages in respect of its failure; but the court shall not grant an order for specific performance of the terms of redemption or purchase if the company shows that it is unable to meet the costs of redeeming or purchasing the shares in question out of distributable profits.

(4) If the company is wound up and at the commencement of the winding up any of the shares have not been redeemed or purchased, the terms of redemption or purchase may be enforced against the company; and when shares are redeemed or purchased under this subsection, they are treated as cancelled.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply if -

- (a) the terms provided for the redemption or purchase to take place at a date later than that of the commencement of the winding up; or
- (b) during the period beginning with the date on which the redemption or purchase was to have taken place and ending with the commencement of the winding up the company could not at any time have lawfully made a distribution equal in value to the price at which the shares were to have been redeemed or purchased.

(6) There shall be paid in priority to any amount which the company is liable under subsection (4) to pay in respect of any shares -

- (a) all other debts and liabilities of the company (other than any due to members in their character as such);
- (b) if other shares carry rights (whether as to capital or as to income) which are preferred to the rights as to capital attaching to the first-mentioned shares, any amount due in satisfaction of those preferred rights, but, subject to that, any such amount shall be paid in priority to any amounts due to members in satisfaction of their rights (whether as to capital or income) as members.

(7) Where by virtue of section 71 of the Bankruptcy Ordinance (Cap 6) as applied by section 264, a creditor of a company is entitled to payment of any interest only after payment of all other debts of the company, the company's debts and liabilities for purposes of subsection (6) include the liability to pay that interest.

- (a) the authority required for a purchase by a company of its own shares;
- (b) the authority required for the release by a company of its rights under a contract for the purchase of its own shares or a contract under which the company may (subject to any conditions) become entitled or obliged to purchase its own shares;
- (c) the information to be included in a return delivered by a company to the Registrar in accordance with section 49G(1);
- (d) the matters to be dealt with in the statement of the directors under section 49K with a view to indicating their opinion of their company's ability to make a proposed payment out of capital with due regard to its financial situation and prospects; and
- (e) the contents of the auditors' report required by that section to be annexed to the directors' statement.

(2) The Chief Executive in Council may also by regulations so made make such provision (including modification of sections 49 to 49S) as appears to him to be appropriate -

- (a) for wholly or partly relieving companies from the requirement of section 49I(3)(a) that any available profits shall be taken into account in determining the amount of the permissible capital payment under that section; or
- (b) for permitting a company's share premium account to be applied, to any extent appearing to the Chief Executive in Council to be appropriate, in providing for the premiums payable on redemption or purchase by the company of any of its own shares.

(3) Regulations under this section -

- (a) may make such further modification of sections 49 to 49S and sections 79J(2) and (3) and 79M as appears to the Chief Executive in Council to be reasonably necessary in consequence of any provision made under such regulations by virtue of subsection (1) or (2);
- (b) may make different provision for different cases or classes of case; and
- (c) may contain such further consequential provisions, and such incidental and supplementary provisions, as the Chief Executive in Council thinks fit.

(4) No regulations shall be made under this section unless a draft of them has been laid before and approved by resolution of the Legislative Council and section 34 of the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance (Cap 1) shall not apply to such regulations.

Transitional cases arising under sections 49 to 49S; and savings

49R.(1) Any preference shares issued by a company before the commencement of the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 1991 (77 of 1991) which could but for the repeal by that Ordinance of section 49 have been redeemed under that section are subject to redemption in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance as amended by that Ordinance.

(2) In a case to which sections 49 and 49A apply by virtue of this section, any premium payable on redemption may, notwithstanding the repeal by the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 1991 (77 of 1991) of any provision of this Ordinance, be paid out of the share premium account instead of out of profits, or partly out of that account and partly out of profits (but subject to the provisions of this Ordinance as amended by that Ordinance so far as payment is out of profits).

(3) Any capital redemption reserve fund established before the commencement of the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 1991 (77 of 1991) by a company for the purposes of the repealed section 49 is to be known as the company's capital redemption reserve and be treated as if it had been established for the purposes of section 49H; and accordingly, a reference in any enactment or in the articles of any company, or in any other instrument, to a company's capital redemption reserve fund is to be construed as a reference to the company's capital redemption reserve.

Definitions for sections 49 to 49R

49S.(1) In sections 49 to 49R -

Provided that no such prior approval shall be required in relation to the allotment of shares in the company under an offer made pro rata by the company to the members of the company, excluding for that purpose any member whose address is in a place where such offer is not permitted under the law of that place.

(2) Approval for the purposes of this section may be confined to a particular exercise of that power or may apply to the exercise of that power generally; and any such approval may be unconditional or subject to conditions.

whichever is the earlier; but any approval may be previously revoked or varied by the company in general meeting.

(4) The directors may allot shares notwithstanding that an approval for the purposes of this section has ceased to be in force if the shares are allotted in pursuance of an offer, agreement or option made or granted by them while the approval was in force and they were authorized by the approval to make or grant an offer, agreement or option which would or might require shares to be allotted after the expiration of the approval.

(5) Repealed

(6) Any director who knowingly and wilfully contravenes, or permits or authorizes the contravention of, this section shall be liable to imprisonment and a fine.

(7) Nothing in this section shall affect the validity of any allotment of shares or require approval for the allotment to the founder members of a company of shares in the company which, by signing the memorandum, they have agreed to take.

57C. Where a company has purported to issue or allot shares and the creation, issue or allotment of those shares was invalid by reason of any provision of this or any other Ordinance, or of the memorandum or articles of the company or otherwise, or the terms of issue or allotment were inconsistent with or unauthorized by any such provision, the court may, upon application made by the company or by a holder or mortgagee of any of those shares or by a creditor of the company, and upon being satisfied that in all the circumstances it is just and equitable so to do, make an order validating the issue or allotment of those shares or confirming the terms of issue or allotment thereof, or both, and upon an office copy of the order being lodged with the Registrar those shares shall be deemed to have been validly issued or allotted upon the terms of the issue or allotment thereof.

Reduction of Share Capital

Special resolution for reduction of share capital

58.(1) Subject to confirmation by the court, a company limited by shares or a company limited by guarantee and having a share capital may, if so authorized by its articles, by special resolution reduce its share capital in any way, and in particular, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, may -

- (a) extinguish or reduce the liability on any of its shares in respect of share capital not paid up; or
- (b) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, cancel any paid-up share capital which is lost or unrepresented by available assets; or
- (c) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, pay off any paid-up share capital which is in excess of the wants of the company, and may, if and so far as is necessary, alter its memorandum by reducing the amount of its share capital and of its shares accordingly.

(1A) Except as provided in this Ordinance, no company limited by shares or limited by guarantee and having a share capital shall purchase or subscribe for any shares in the company or reduce its share capital in any way; and this subsection shall apply as if any share premium account or capital redemption reserve fund of a company were paid up share capital of the company.

(1B) If a company purports to act in contravention of subsection (1A), -

- (a) the company is liable to a fine;
- (b) every officer who is in default is liable to imprisonment and a fine; and
- (c) a relevant shareholder within the meaning given in the Thirteenth Schedule who knowingly permits the contravention of subsection (1A) is liable to imprisonment and a fine.

(1C) Subject to section 168A, if a company purchases any shares in itself under sections 49 to 49S, no such purchase shall be void by reason only of a failure to comply with any of those provisions.

(1D) Notwithstanding subsection (1C), a purchase which contravenes section 49B(6) is void.

(2) A special resolution under this section is in this Ordinance referred to as a resolution for reducing share capital.

(3) Confirmation by the court of a reduction of the share capital of a company is not required under subsection (1) if the sole purpose of the reduction is to re-designate the nominal value of the shares of the company to a lower amount and the following conditions are satisfied -

- (a) the company has only one class of shares;
- (b) all issued shares are fully paid-up and the amount of the net assets of the company is not less than its paid-up share capital;
- (c) the reduction applies to and affects all shares equally;
- (d) the amount arising from the reduction is not less than an amount representing the difference between the amount of the company's fully paid-up share capital immediately before the reduction and the amount of its fully paid-up share capital immediately after the reduction; and
- (e) the amount arising from the reduction is credited to the share premium account of the company.

(4) In this section, "net assets", in relation to a company, has the same meaning as in section 157HA(15).

Application to court for confirming order, objections by creditors and settlement of list of objecting creditors

59.(1) Where a company has passed a resolution for reducing share capital, it may apply by petition to the court for an order confirming the reduction.

(2) Where the proposed reduction of share capital involves either diminution of liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid-up share capital, and in any other case if the court so directs, the following provisions shall have effect, subject nevertheless to subsection (3) -

- (a) every creditor of the company who at the date fixed by the court is entitled to any debt or claim which, if that date were the commencement of the winding up of the company, would be admissible in proof against the company, shall be entitled to object to the reduction;
- (b) the court shall settle a list of creditors so entitled to object, and for that purpose shall ascertain, as far as possible without requiring an application from any creditor, the names of those creditors and the nature and amount of their debts or claims, and may publish notices fixing a day or days within which creditors not entered on the list are to claim to be so entered or are to be excluded from the right of objecting to the reduction;

- (c) where a creditor entered on the list whose debt or claim is not discharged or has not determined does not consent to the reduction, the court may, if it thinks fit, dispense with the consent of that creditor, on the company securing payment of his debt or claim by appropriating, as the court may direct, the following amount -
 - (i) if the company admits the full amount of the debt or claim, or, though not admitting it is willing to provide for it, then the full amount of the debt or claim;
 - (ii) if the company does not admit and is not willing to provide for the full amount of the debt or claim, or if the amount is contingent or not ascertained, then an amount fixed by the court after the like inquiry and adjudication as if the company were being wound up by the court.

(3) Where a proposed reduction of share capital involves either the diminution of any liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid-up share capital, the court may, if having regard to any special circumstances of the case it thinks proper so to do, direct that subsection (2) shall not apply as regards any class or any classes of creditors.

(4) This section does not apply to a reduction of the share capital of a company for which, by virtue of section 58(3), confirmation by the court is not required.

Order confirming reduction and powers of court on making such order

60.(1) The court, if satisfied, with respect to every creditor of the company who under section 59 is entitled to object to the reduction, that either his consent to the reduction has been obtained or his debt or claim has been discharged or has determined, or has been secured, may make an order confirming the reduction on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit.

(2)-(3) Repealed

Registration of order and minute of reduction

61.(1) In the case of a reduction of the share capital of a company that is subject to confirmation by the court under section 58, the Registrar, on production to him of an order of the court confirming the reduction of the share capital of the company, and the delivery to him of a copy of the order and of a minute approved by the court, showing with respect to the share capital of the company, as altered by the order, the amount of the share capital, the number of shares into which it is to be divided, and the amount of each share, and the amount, if any, at the date of the registration deemed to be paid up on each share, shall register the order and minute.

(2) On the registration of the order and minute, and not before, the resolution for reducing share capital as confirmed by the order so registered shall take effect.

(3) Notice of the registration shall be published in such manner as the court may direct.

(4) The Registrar shall issue a certificate, with his signature or printed signature, certifying the registration of the order and minute, and the certificate shall be conclusive evidence that all the requirements of this Ordinance with respect to the reduction of share capital have been complied with, and that the share capital of the company is such as is stated in the minute.

(5) The minute when registered shall be deemed to be substituted for the corresponding part of the memorandum, and shall be valid and alterable as if it had been originally contained therein.

(6) The substitution of any such minute as aforesaid for part of the memorandum of the company shall be deemed to be an alteration of the memorandum within the meaning of section 27.

Registration of special resolution, minute and statement where court confirmation is not required

61A.(1) Where a company has passed a resolution for reducing share capital under section 58 and, by virtue of section 58(3), confirmation of the reduction by the court is not required, the Registrar, on production to him of a copy of the resolution certified as correct by an officer of the company and the delivery to him of -

- (a) a copy of a minute, certified as correct by an officer of the company, showing with respect to the share capital of the company, as altered by the resolution, the amount of the share capital, the number of shares into which it is to be divided, and the amount of each share, and the amount, if any, at the date of the registration deemed to be paid up on each share; and
- (b) a statement in the specified form signed by an officer of the company, certifying that the conditions set out in section 58(3)(a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) have been satisfied, shall register the resolution, minute and statement.

(2) On the registration of the resolution, minute and statement, and not before, the resolution for reducing share capital shall take effect.

(3) Notice of the registration shall be published in such manner as the Registrar may direct.

(4) The Registrar shall issue a certificate, with his signature or printed signature, certifying the registration of the resolution, minute and statement, and the certificate shall be conclusive evidence that all the requirements of this Ordinance with respect to the reduction of share capital have been complied with, and that the share capital of the company is such as is stated in the minute.

(5) The minute when registered shall be deemed to be substituted for the corresponding part of the memorandum, and shall be valid and alterable as if it had been originally contained in the memorandum.

(6) The substitution of any such minute for part of the memorandum of the company shall be deemed to be an alteration of the memorandum within the meaning of section 27.

Liability of members in respect of reduced shares

62.(1) In the case of a reduction of share capital, a member of the company, past or present, shall not be liable in respect of any share to any call or contribution exceeding in amount the difference, if any, between the amount of the share as fixed by the minute and the amount paid, or the reduced amount, if any, which is to be deemed to have been paid, on the share, as the case may be:

Provided that, if any creditor, entitled in respect of any debt or claim to object to the reduction of share capital, is, by reason of his ignorance of the proceedings for reduction, or of their nature and effect with respect to his claim, not entered on the list of creditors, and, after the reduction, the company is unable, within the meaning of the provisions of this Ordinance with respect to winding up by the court, to pay the amount of his debt or claim, then -

- (a) every person who was a member of the company at the date of the registration of the order for reduction and minute, shall be liable to contribute for the payment of that debt or claim an amount not exceeding the amount which he would have been liable to contribute if the company had commenced to be wound up on the day before the said date; and

- (b) if the company is wound up, the court, on the application of any such creditor and proof of his ignorance as aforesaid, may, if it thinks fit, settle accordingly a list of persons so liable to contribute, and make and enforce calls and orders on the contributories settled on the list, as if they were ordinary contributories in a winding up.

- (2) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of the contributories among themselves.

Penalty for concealing name of creditor

63. If any officer of the company -

- (a) wilfully conceals the name of any creditor entitled to object to the reduction; or

Variation of rights attached to special classes of shares

63A.(1) Where, in the case of a company the share capital of which is divided into different classes of shares, special rights are attached to any such class of shares otherwise than by the memorandum and the articles do not provide for the variation of those rights, the articles shall be deemed to contain provision that such rights shall not be varied except with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of the class in question or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of that class.

(2) Where, in the case of a company the share capital of which is divided into different classes of shares, special rights are attached to any such class of shares by the memorandum and provision for the variation of those rights is, at the time of the company's incorporation, contained in the articles, those rights shall be capable of variation in accordance with the articles as for the time being in force, even if no reference is made in the memorandum to their variation in that manner.

(3) Where, in the case of a company the share capital of which is divided into different classes of shares, special rights are attached to any such class of shares by the memorandum and the memorandum and articles do not contain provision with respect to the variation of the rights, those rights may be varied if all the members of the company agree to the variation.

(4) Where the articles of a company contain, or by virtue of this section are deemed to contain, a provision for the variation of the rights attached to any class of shares, those rights shall not be capable of variation otherwise than in accordance with that provision.

(5) Any provision deemed by virtue of this section to be contained in a company's articles shall be subject to alteration in like manner as a provision in fact contained therein; but any alteration of a provision for the variation of the rights attached to a class of shares which is, or by virtue of this section is deemed to be,

contained in a company's articles or the insertion of any such provision into a company's articles shall itself be treated as a variation of those rights.

(6) Sections 114, 114A, 114AA and 115A and the provisions of the articles relating to general meetings shall, so far as applicable, apply in relation to any meeting of shareholders required by virtue of this section or otherwise to take place in connection with the variation of the rights attached to a class of shares, and shall so apply with the necessary modifications and subject to the following -

- (a) the necessary quorum at any such meeting other than an adjourned meeting shall be 2 persons holding or representing by proxy at least one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class in question, and at an adjourned meeting 1 person holding shares of the class in question or his proxy;
- (b) any holder of shares of the class in question present in person or by proxy may demand a poll.

(7) Section 64 shall apply where a company's articles are by virtue of subsection (1) deemed to contain a provision for the variation of the rights attached to a class of shares as it applies where the articles in fact contain such a provision.

(8) In this section and, except where the context otherwise requires, in any provision for the variation of the rights attached to a class of shares contained in a company's articles, references to the variation of those rights shall include references to their abrogation.

(9) Nothing in subsection (4) shall be construed as derogating from the powers of the court under section 166, 167 or 168A.

Rights of holders of special classes of shares

(1A) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of any member of the company to apply to the court by petition under section 168A.

(2) An application under this section must be made within 28 days after the date on which the consent was given or the resolution was passed, as the case may be, and may be made on behalf of the shareholders entitled to make the application by such one or more of their number as they may appoint in writing for the purpose.

(3) On any such application the court, after hearing the applicant and any other persons who apply to the court to be heard and appear to the court to be interested in the application, may, if it is satisfied, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, that the variation would unfairly prejudice the shareholders of the class represented by the applicant, disallow the variation and shall, if not so satisfied, confirm the variation.

(4) The decision of the court on any such application shall be final.

(5) The company shall within 21 days after the making of an order by the court on any such application forward a copy of the order to the Registrar, and, if default is made in complying with this provision, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine and, for continued default, to a daily default fine.

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall affect the rights of any member under the articles whereby he is entitled to any rights of pre-emption over, or rights of purchasing, the shares in question.

(1B) Where a company refuses to register a transfer of any shares, the transferee may apply to the court to have the transfer registered by the company; and the court may, if it is satisfied that the application is well founded, disallow the refusal and order that the transfer be registered forthwith by the company.

(2) Subject to subsection (6), on a re-issue of redeemed debentures the person entitled to the debentures shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had, the same priorities as if the debentures had never been redeemed.

(3) Repealed

(4) Where a company has either before or after the commencement of this Ordinance deposited any of its debentures to secure advances from time to time on current account or otherwise, the debentures shall not be deemed to have been redeemed by reason only of the account of the company having ceased to be in debit whilst the debentures remained so deposited.

(5) The re-issue of a debenture or the issue of another debenture in its place under the power by this section given to, or deemed to have been possessed by, a company, whether the re-issue or issue was made before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, shall be treated as the issue of a new debenture for the purposes of stamp duty, but it shall not be so treated for the purposes of any provision limiting the amount or number of debentures to be issued:

Provided that any person lending money on the security of a debenture re-issued under this section which appears to be duly stamped may give the debenture in evidence in any proceedings for enforcing his security without payment of the stamp duty or any penalty in respect thereof, unless he had notice or, but for his negligence, might have discovered, that the debenture was not duly stamped, but in any such case the company shall be liable to pay the proper stamp duty and penalty.

(6) Where any debentures which have been redeemed before the commencement of this Ordinance are re-issued subsequently to that date, the re-issue of the debentures shall not prejudice and shall be deemed never to have prejudiced any right or priority which any person would have had under or by virtue of any mortgage or charge created before the commencement of this Ordinance, if section 106 of the Companies Ordinance 1911 (58 of 1911), as originally enacted, had been enacted in this Ordinance instead of this section.

Specific performance of contracts to subscribe for debentures

78. A contract with a company to take up and pay for any debentures of the company may be enforced by an order for specific performance.

Payment of certain debts out of assets subject to floating charge in priority to claims under the charge

79.(1) Where a receiver is appointed on behalf of the holders of any debentures of a company secured by a charge which, as created, was a floating charge, or possession is taken by or on behalf of those debenture holders of any property comprised in or subject to the charge, then, if the company is not at the time in course of being wound up, the debts, which in every winding-up are under the provisions of Part V relating to preferential payments to be paid in priority to all other debts, shall, according to their respective priorities under section 265, be paid out of any assets coming to the hands of the receiver or other person taking possession as aforesaid in priority to any claim for principal or interest in respect of the debentures.

(1A) In the application of the provisions of Part V, section 265 shall be construed as if the provision for payment of accrued holiday remuneration becoming payable on the termination of employment before or by the effect of the winding-up order or resolution were a provision for payment of such remuneration becoming payable on the termination of employment before or by the effect of the appointment of the receiver or possession being taken as aforesaid.

(2) The periods of time mentioned in the said provisions of Part V shall be reckoned from the date of the appointment of the receiver or of possession being taken as aforesaid, as the case may be.

(2A) Where the date referred to in subsection (2) occurred before the commencement of the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 1984 (6 of 1984), subsections (1) and (2) shall have effect with the substitution, for references to the provisions of Part V, of references to the provisions which, by virtue of section 265(7) are deemed to remain in force in the case therein mentioned, and subsection (1A) shall not apply.

(3) Any payments made under this section shall be recouped as far as may be out of the assets of the company available for payment of general creditors.

PART IIA - DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS AND ASSETS

Interpretation

79A.(1) In this Part -

“appointed day” means the date of commencement of this Part under the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 1991 (77 of 1991);

“called up share capital”, in relation to a company, means so much of its share capital as equals the aggregate amount of the calls made on its shares (whether or not those calls have been paid), together with any share capital paid up without being called and any share capital to be paid on a specified future date under the articles, the terms of allotment of the relevant shares or any other arrangements for payment of those shares and “uncalled share capital” is to be construed accordingly;

“capitalisation”, in relation to a company’s profits, means any of the following operations (whenever carried out) -

- (a) applying the profits in wholly or partly paying up unissued shares in the company to be allotted to members of the company as fully or partly paid bonus shares; or
- (b) transferring the profits to capital redemption reserve;

“distribution” means every description of distribution of a company’s assets to its members, whether in cash or otherwise, except distribution by way of -

- (a) an issue of shares as fully or partly paid bonus shares;
- (b) the redemption or purchase of any of the company’s own shares out of capital (including the proceeds of any fresh issue of shares) or out of unrealised profits in accordance with sections 49 to 49S;
- (c) the reduction of share capital by extinguishing or reducing the liability of any of the members on any of the company’s shares in respect of share capital not paid up, or by paying off paid up share capital; and
- (d) a distribution of assets to members of the company on its winding up;

“net assets”, in relation to a company, has the same meaning as in section 157HA(15).

(2) References to profits and losses of any description are (respectively) to profits and losses of that description made at any time.

(3) Without prejudice to -

- (a) the construction of any other expression (where appropriate) by reference to accepted accounting principles or practice; or
- (b) any specific provision for the treatment of profits of any description as realised, it is declared that references in this Part to realised profits, in relation to a company's accounts, are to such profits of the company as fall to be treated as realised profits for the purposes of those accounts in accordance with principles generally accepted with respect to the determination for accounting purposes of realised profits at the time when those accounts are prepared.

Certain distributions prohibited

79B.(1) A company shall not make a distribution except out of profits available for the purpose.

(2) For the purposes of this Part, a company's profits available for distribution are its accumulated, realised profits, so far as not previously utilised by distribution or capitalisation, less its accumulated, realised losses, so far as not previously written off in a reduction or reorganisation of capital duly made.

(3) A company shall not apply an unrealised profit in paying up debentures, or any amounts unpaid on its issued shares.

(4) Where the directors of a company are, after making all reasonable enquiries, unable to determine whether a particular profit made before the appointed day is realised or unrealised, they may treat the profit as realised; and where after making such enquiries they are unable to determine whether a particular loss so made is realised or unrealised, they may treat the loss as unrealised.

Restriction on distribution of assets

79C.(1) A listed company may only make a distribution at any time -

- (a) if at that time the amount of its net assets is not less than the aggregate of its called up share capital and undistributable reserves; and
- (b) if, and to the extent that, the distribution does not reduce the amount of those assets to less than that aggregate.

(2) A listed company's undistributable reserves are -

- (a) the share premium account;
- (b) the capital redemption reserve;
- (c) the amount by which the company's accumulated, unrealised profits, so far as not previously utilised by capitalisation of a description to which this paragraph applies, exceed its accumulated, unrealised losses (so far as not previously written off in a reduction or reorganisation of capital duly made); and
- (d) any other reserve which the company is prohibited from distributing by any enactment (other than one contained in this Part) or by its memorandum or articles, and paragraph (c) applies to every description of capitalisation except a transfer of profits of the company to its capital redemption reserve on or after the appointed day.

(3) A listed company shall not include any uncalled share capital as an asset in any accounts relevant for the purposes of this section.

Exemption of certain companies

79D. The Financial Secretary may, on the application of any listed company whose principal business consists of investing its funds in securities, land or other assets with the aim of spreading investment risk and giving its members the benefit of the results of the management of the assets, modify or exempt in relation to that company any of the requirements of sections 79B and 79C, subject to such terms and conditions as he may consider appropriate.

Realised profits of insurance company with long term business

79E.(1) Where an insurance company to which Parts III to VI of the Insurance Companies Ordinance (Cap 41) apply carries on long term business -

- (a) any amount properly transferred to the profit and loss account of the company from a surplus in the fund or funds maintained by it in respect of that business; and
- (b) any deficit in that fund or those funds, are to be (respectively) treated, for the purposes of this Part, as a realised profit and a realised loss; and, subject to this, any profit or loss arising in that business is to be left out of account for those purposes.

(2) In subsection (1) -

- (a) the reference to a surplus in any fund or funds of an insurance company is to an excess of the assets representing that fund or those funds over that liabilities of the company attributable to its long term business, as shown by an actuarial investigation; and
- (b) the reference to a deficit in any such fund or funds is to the excess of those liabilities over those assets, as so shown.

(3) In this section -

“actuarial investigation” means an investigation to which section 18 of the Insurance Companies Ordinance (Cap 41) applies or which is made in pursuance of a requirement imposed by section 32 of that Ordinance;

“long term business” has the same meaning as in the Insurance Companies Ordinance (Cap 41).

Relevant Accounts

Distribution to be justified by reference to company's accounts

79F.(1) This section and sections 79G to 79L are for determining the question whether a distribution may be made by a company without contravening section 79B or 79C.

(2) The amount of a distribution which may be made is determined by reference to the following items as stated in the company's accounts -

- (a) profits, losses, assets and liabilities;

- (b) provisions within the meaning of paragraph 30(1) of the Tenth Schedule (depreciation, renewals, diminution in value of assets, retentions to meet liabilities, etc.); and
- (c) share capital and reserves (including undistributable reserves).

(3) Except in a case falling within subsection (4), the company's accounts which are relevant for this purpose are its last annual accounts, that is to say, those prepared under Part IV which were laid in respect of the last preceding financial year in respect of which accounts so prepared were laid; and for this purpose accounts are laid if section 122 has been complied with in relation to them.

(4) In the following 2 cases -

- (a) where the distribution would be found to contravene the relevant section if reference were made only to the company's last annual accounts; or
- (b) where the distribution is proposed to be declared before any accounts are laid in compliance with section 122, the accounts relevant under this section (called "interim accounts" in the first case, and "initial accounts" in the second) are those necessary to enable a reasonable judgment to be made as to the amounts of the items mentioned in subsection (2).

(5) The relevant section is treated as contravened in the case of a distribution unless the statutory requirement about the relevant accounts (that is, the requirement of this section and sections 79G, 79H and 79I, as and where applicable) are complied with in relation to that distribution.

Requirement for last annual accounts

79G.(1) If the company's last annual accounts constitute the only accounts relevant under section 79F, the statutory requirements in respect of them are as follows.

(2) The accounts shall have been properly prepared in accordance with this Ordinance, or have been so prepared subject only to matters which are not material for determining, by reference to items mentioned in section 79F(2), whether the distribution would contravene that relevant section; and, without prejudice to the foregoing -

- (a) in the case of a company where the shareholders have agreed to apply the provisions of section 141D, so much of the accounts as consists of a balance sheet shall give a true and correct view of the state of the company's affairs; and
- (b) in the case of any other company -
 - (i) so much of the accounts as consists of a balance sheet shall give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at the balance sheet date; and
 - (ii) so much of the accounts as consists of a profit and loss account shall give a true and fair view of the company's profit or loss for the period in respect of which the accounts were prepared.

(3) The auditors shall have made their report on the accounts under section 141 or 141D as appropriate; and subsection (4) applies if the report is a qualified report, that is to say, it is not a report without qualification to the effect that in the auditors' opinion the accounts have been properly prepared in accordance with this Ordinance.

(4) The auditors shall in that case also have stated in writing (either at the time of their report or subsequently) whether, in their opinion, the matter in respect of which their report is qualified is material for determining, by reference to items mentioned in section 79F(2), whether the distribution would contravene the relevant section; and a copy of the statement shall have been laid before the company in general meeting.

(5) A statement under subsection (4) suffices for the purposes of a particular distribution not only if it relates to a distribution which has been proposed but also if it relates to distributions of any description which includes that particular distribution, notwithstanding that at the time of the statement it has not been proposed.

Requirement for interim accounts

79H.(1) The following are the statutory requirements in respect of interim accounts prepared for a proposed distribution by a listed company.

(2) The accounts shall have been properly prepared, or have been so prepared subject only to matters which are not material for determining, by reference to items mentioned in section 79F(2), whether the proposed distribution would contravene the relevant section.

(3) “Properly prepared” means that the accounts shall comply with section 123 (applying that section and the Tenth Schedule with such modifications as are necessary because the accounts are prepared otherwise than in respect of a financial year) and any balance sheet comprised in the accounts shall have been signed in accordance with section 129B; and, without prejudice to the foregoing -

(a) so much of the accounts as consists of a balance sheet shall give a true and fair view of the state of the company’s affairs as at the balance sheet date; and

(b) so much of the accounts as consists of a profit and loss account shall give a true and fair view of the company’s profit or loss for the period in respect of which the accounts were prepared.

(4) A copy of the accounts shall have been delivered to the Registrar.

(5) If the accounts are not in the English or Chinese language, a translation into English or Chinese of the accounts, certified in the prescribed manner to be a correct translation, shall also have been delivered to the Registrar.

Requirements for initial accounts

79I.(1) The following are the statutory requirements in respect of initial accounts prepared for a proposed distribution by a listed company.

(2) The accounts shall have been properly prepared, or they shall have been so prepared subject only to matters which are not material for determining, by reference to items mentioned in section 79F(2), whether the proposed distribution would contravene the relevant section.

(3) Section 79H(3) applies as respects the meaning of “properly prepared”.

(4) The company’s auditors shall have made a report stating whether, in their opinion, the accounts have been properly prepared; and subsection (5) applies if their report is a qualified report, that is to say, it is not a report without qualification to the effect that in the auditors’ opinion the accounts have been so prepared.

(5) The auditors shall in that case also have stated in writing whether, in their opinion, the matter in respect of which their report is qualified is material for determining, by reference to items mentioned in section 79F(2), whether the distribution would contravene the relevant section.

(6) A copy of the accounts, of the auditors' report under subsection (4) and of the auditors' statement (if any) under subsection (5) shall have been delivered to the Registrar.

(7) If the accounts are, or the auditors' report under subsection (4) or the statement (if any) under subsection (5) is, in a language other than English or Chinese, a translation into English or Chinese of the accounts, the report or the statement (as the case may be) certified in the prescribed manner to be a correct translation, shall also have been delivered to the Registrar.

Method of applying section 79F to successive distributions

79J.(1) For the purpose of determining by reference to particular accounts whether a proposed distribution may be made by a company, section 79F has effect, in a case where one or more distributions have already been made in pursuance of determinations made by reference to those same accounts, as if the amount of the proposed distribution was increased by the amount of the distributions so made.

(2) Subsection (1) applies (if it would not otherwise do so) to -

- (a) financial assistance lawfully given by a listed company out of its distributable profits in a case where the assistance is required to be so given by section 47D;
- (b) financial assistance lawfully given by an unlisted company out of its distributable profits in a case where the assistance is required to be so given by section 47E(2);
- (c) financial assistance given by a company in contravention of section 47A, in a case where the giving of that assistance reduces the company's net assets or increases its net liabilities;
- (d) a payment made by a company in respect of the purchase by it of shares in the company (except a payment lawfully made otherwise than out of distributable profits); and
- (e) a payment of any description specified in section 49F (company's purchase of right to acquire its own shares, etc.), being financial assistance given or payment made since the relevant accounts were prepared, as if any such financial assistance or payment were a distribution already made in pursuance of a determination made by reference to those accounts.

(3) In this section -

“financial assistance” has the same meaning as in sections 47A to 48;

“net liabilities”, in relation to the giving of financial assistance by a company, means the amount by which the aggregate amount of the company's liabilities (within the meaning of section 47D(2)(b)) exceeds the aggregate amount of its assets, taking the amount of the assets and liabilities to be as stated in the company's books of account immediately before the financial assistance is given.

Treatment of assets in the relevant accounts

79K.(1) For the purposes of sections 79B and 79C, a provision of any kind mentioned in paragraph 30(1) of the Tenth Schedule, other than one in respect of a diminution in value of a fixed asset appearing on a revaluation of all the fixed assets of the company, or of all of its fixed assets other than goodwill, is treated as a realised loss.

(2) If, on the revaluation of a fixed asset, an unrealised profit is shown to have been made and, on or after the revaluation, a sum is written off or retained for depreciation of that asset over a period, then an amount equal to the amount by which that sum exceeds the sum which would have been so written off or retained for the depreciation of that asset over that period, if that profit had not been made, is treated for purposes of sections 79B and 79C as a realised profit made over that period.

(3) Where there is no record of the original cost of an asset, or a record cannot be obtained without unreasonable expense or delay, then for the purpose of determining whether the company has made a profit or loss in respect of that asset, its cost is taken to be the value ascribed to it in the earliest available record of its value made on or after its acquisition by the company.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), any consideration by the directors of the value at a particular time of a fixed asset is treated as a revaluation of the asset for the purposes of determining whether any such revaluation of the company's fixed assets as is required for purposes of the exception from subsection (1) has taken place at that time.

(5) But where any such assets which have not actually been revalued are treated as revalued for those purposes under subsection (4), that exception applies only if the directors are satisfied that their aggregate value at the time in question is not less than the aggregate amount at which they are for the time being stated in the company's accounts.

(6) Where section 79G(2), 79H(2) or 79I(2) applies to the relevant accounts, subsections (4) and (5) do not apply for the purpose of determining whether a revaluation of the company's fixed assets affecting the amount of the relevant items (that is, the items mentioned in section 79F(2)) as stated in those accounts has taken place, unless it is stated in a note to the accounts -

- (a) that the directors have considered the value at any time of any fixed assets of the company, without actually revaluing those assets;
- (b) that they are satisfied that the aggregate value of those assets at the time in question is or was not less than the aggregate amount at which they are or were for the time being stated in the company's accounts; and
- (c) that the relevant items in question are accordingly stated in the relevant accounts on the basis that a revaluation of the company's fixed assets which by virtue of subsections (4) and (5) included the assets in question took place at that time.

(7) For the purposes of this section, assets of a company are taken to be fixed assets if they are intended for use or otherwise to be held on a continuing basis in the company's activities.

Distributions in kind

79L. Where a company makes a distribution of or including a non-cash asset, and any part of the amount at which that asset is stated in the accounts relevant for the purposes of the distribution in accordance with sections 79F to 79K represents an unrealised profit, that profit is to be treated as a realised profit for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of the distribution in accordance with this Part (whether before or after the distribution takes place).

Supplementary

Consequences of unlawful distribution

79M.(1) Where a distribution, or part of one, made by a company to one of its members is made in contravention of this Part and, at the time of the distribution, he knows or has reasonable grounds for believing that it is so made, he is liable to repay it (or that part of it, as the case may be) to the company or (in the case of a distribution made otherwise than in cash) to pay the company a sum equal to the value of the distribution (or part) at that time.

(2) Subsection (1) is without prejudice to any obligation imposed apart from this section on a member of a company to repay a distribution unlawfully made to him; but this section does not apply in relation to -

- (a) financial assistance given by a company in contravention of section 47A; or
- (b) any payment made by a company in respect of the redemption or purchase by the company of shares in itself.

Saving for provision in articles operative before the appointed day

79N. Where immediately before the appointed day a company was authorized by a provision of its articles to apply its unrealised profits in paying up in full or in part unissued shares to be allotted to members of the company as fully or partly paid bonus shares, that provision continues (subject to any alteration of the articles) as authority for those profits to be so applied after the date.

Application to certain companies

79O. Where a company is -

- (a) a banking company as defined in paragraph 26 of the Tenth Schedule;
- (b) an insurance company authorized to carry on business under the Insurance Companies Ordinance (Cap 41); or
- (c) a shipping company as defined in paragraph 28 of the Tenth Schedule, section 79G to 79K shall apply with the following modifications -

- (i) section 79G applies as if in subsection 79G(2)(b), immediately after the words “in the case of any other company” there were inserted “, except where the company is entitled to avail itself, and has availed itself, of any of the provisions of Part III of the Tenth Schedule,”;
- (ii) sections 79H and 79I apply as if in section 79H(3), immediately after the words “without prejudice to the foregoing” there were inserted “, except where the company is entitled to avail itself, and has availed itself, of any of the provisions of Part III of the Tenth Schedule,”.

Saving for other restraints on distribution

79P. The provisions of this Part are without prejudice to any enactment or rule of law, or any provision of a company’s memorandum or articles, restricting the sums out of which, or the cases in which, a distribution may be made.

PART III - REGISTRATION OF CHARGES

Registration of Charges with Registrar of Companies

Registration of charges created by companies

80.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance, every charge created after the fixed date by a company and being a charge to which this section applies shall, so far as any security on the company's property or undertaking is conferred thereby, be void against the liquidator and any creditor of the company, unless the particulars of the charge (which must include those specified in subsection (1A) and be in the specified form), together with the instrument, if any, by which the charge is created or evidenced, are delivered to or received by the Registrar for registration in manner required by this Ordinance within 5 weeks after the date of its creation, but without prejudice to any contract or obligation for repayment of the money thereby secured, and when a charge becomes void under this section the money secured thereby shall immediately become payable.

(1A) The particulars referred to in subsection (1) are, the date and description of the instrument creating the charge, the amount secured, short particulars of the property mortgaged or charged, names, addresses and description of mortgagees or persons entitled to the charge, details of any commission, discount or allowance payable to any person in consideration of his agreeing to subscribe to any debenture.

(2) This section applies to the following charges -

- (a)* a charge for the purpose of securing any issue of debentures;
- (b)* a charge on uncalled share capital of the company;
- (c)* a charge created or evidenced by an instrument which, if executed by an individual, would require registration as a bill of sale;
- (d)* a charge on land, wherever situate, or any interest therein, but not including a charge for any rent or other periodical sum issuing out of land;
- (e)* a charge on book debts of the company;
- (f)* a floating charge on the undertaking or property of the company;
- (g)* a charge on calls made but not paid;
- (h)* a charge on a ship or any share in a ship;
- (i)* a charge on goodwill, on a patent or a licence under a patent, on a trademark or on a copyright or a licence under a copyright.

(3) In the case of a charge created out of Hong Kong comprising property situate outside Hong Kong the delivery to and the receipt by the Registrar of a copy verified in the prescribed manner of the instrument by which the charge is created or evidenced, shall have the same effect for the purposes of this section as the delivery and receipt of the instrument itself, and 5 weeks after the date on which the instrument or copy could, in due course of post, and if dispatched with due diligence, have been received in Hong Kong shall be substituted for 5 weeks after the date of the creation of the charge, as the time within which the particulars and instrument or copy are to be delivered to the Registrar.

(4) Where a charge is created in Hong Kong but comprises property outside Hong Kong the instrument creating or purporting to create the charge may be sent for registration under this section notwithstanding that further proceedings may be necessary to make the charge valid or effectual according to the law of the country in which the property is situate.

(5) Where a negotiable instrument has been given to secure the payment of any book debts of a company the deposit of the instrument for the purpose of securing an advance to the company shall not for the purposes of this section be treated as a charge on those book debts.

(6) The holding of debentures entitling the holder to a charge on land shall not for the purposes of this section be deemed to be an interest in land.

(7) Where a series of debentures containing, or giving by reference to any other instrument, any charge to the benefit of which the debenture holders of that series are entitled pari passu is created by a company, it shall for the purposes of this section be sufficient if there are delivered to or received by the Registrar within 5 weeks after the execution of the deed containing the charge or, if there is no such deed, after the execution of any debentures of the series, the following particulars -

- (a) the total amount secured by the whole series; and
- (b) the dates of the resolutions authorizing the issue of the series and the date of the covering deed, if any, by which the security is created or defined; and
- (c) a general description of the property charged; and
- (d) the names of the trustees, if any, for the debenture holders, together with the deed containing the charge, or, if there is no such deed, one of the debentures of the series:

Provided that, where more than one issue is made of debentures in the series, there shall be sent to the Registrar for entry in the register particulars of the date and amount of each issue, but an omission to do this shall not affect the validity of the debentures issued.

(8) Where any commission, allowance, or discount has been paid or made either directly or indirectly by a company to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any debentures of the company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any such debentures, the particulars required to be sent for registration under this section shall include particulars as to the amount or rate per cent of the commission, discount, or allowance so paid or made, but omission to do this shall not affect the validity of the debentures issued:

Provided that the deposit of any debentures as security for any debt of the company shall not for the purposes of this subsection be treated as the issue of the debentures at a discount.

(9) In this Part -

“charge” includes mortgage;

“the fixed date” means in relation to the charges specified in paragraphs (a) to (f), both inclusive, of subsection (2), 1 January 1912, and in relation to the charges specified in paragraphs (g) to (i), both inclusive, of the said subsection, the commencement of this Ordinance.

Duty of company to register charges created by company

81.(1) It shall be the duty of a company to send to the Registrar for registration the particulars of every charge created by the company and of the issues of debentures of a series, requiring registration under section 80, but registration of any such charge may be effected on the application of any person interested therein.

(2) Where registration is effected on the application of some person other than the company, that person shall be entitled to recover from the company the amount of any fees properly paid by him to the Registrar on the registration.

(3) If any company makes default in sending to the Registrar for registration the particulars of any charge created by the company, or of the issues of debentures of a series, requiring registration as aforesaid, then, unless the registration has been effected on the application of some other person, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine and, for continued default, to a daily default fine.

Duty of company to register charges existing on property acquired

82.(1) Where a company acquires any property which is subject to a charge of any such kind as would, if it had been created by the company after the acquisition of the property, have been required to be registered under this Part, the company shall cause the particulars of the charge (which must include those specified in section 80(1A) and be in the specified form), together with a copy (certified in the prescribed manner to be a correct copy) of the instrument, if any, by which the charge was created or is evidenced, to be delivered to the Registrar for registration in manner required by this Ordinance within 5 weeks after the date on which the acquisition is completed:

Provided that, if the property is situate and the charge was created outside Hong Kong, 5 weeks after the date on which the copy of the instrument could in due course of post, and if dispatched with due diligence, have been received in Hong Kong shall be substituted for 5 weeks after the completion of the acquisition as the time within which the particulars and the copy of the instrument are to be delivered to the Registrar.

(1A) The requirement in subsection (1) to register a charge referred to in that subsection shall apply in relation to any property of an existing company acquired by the company before the date of commencement* of the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 1984 (6 of 1984) as if that property was so acquired on that date, except that, for the purposes of this subsection -

- (a) subsection (1) shall be read and construed as if for “5 weeks after the date on which the acquisition is completed” there were substituted “6 months after the date of commencement of the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 1984 (6 of 1984), unless the property ceased to be so charged, or the charge was registered, prior to that date”;
- (b) the proviso to subsection (1) shall not apply.

(2) If default is made in complying with this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine and, for continued default, to a daily default fine.

Register of charges to be kept by Registrar

83.(1) The Registrar of Companies shall keep, with respect to each company, a register in a form determined by him of all the charges requiring registration under this Part, and shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, enter in the register with respect to such charges the following particulars -

- (a) in the case of a charge to the benefit of which the holders of a series of debentures are entitled, such particulars as are specified in section 80(7);
- (b) in the case of any other charge -

Provided that where the period between the date of issue of the first licence issued to a company under this section and the 31 December next following is less than a year, a proportionate part only of such fee shall be charged.

(3) When the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe that a company is keeping a register of members at any place outside Hong Kong without having a valid licence under this Ordinance, he shall publish in the Gazette and send to the company by post a notice that at the expiration of 3 months from the date of that notice the name of the company mentioned therein will, unless cause is shown to the contrary, be struck off the register and the company will be dissolved.

(4) At the expiration of the time specified in the notice referred to in subsection (3) the Registrar may, unless cause to the contrary is previously shown by the company, strike its name off the register, and shall publish notice thereof in the Gazette and, on the publication in the Gazette of this notice, the company shall be dissolved:

Provided that -

- (a) the liability, if any, of every director, managing officer and member of the company shall continue and may be enforced as if the company had not been dissolved; and
- (b) nothing in this subsection shall affect the power of the court to wind up a company the name of which has been struck off the register.

(5) If a company or any member or creditor thereof feels aggrieved by the company having been struck off the register, the court on an application made by the company or member or creditor before the expiration of 20 years from the publication in the Gazette of the notice aforesaid may, if satisfied that it is just that the company be restored to the register, order the name of the company to be restored to the register, and upon an office copy of the order being delivered to the Registrar for registration the company shall be deemed to have continued in existence as if its name had not been struck off; and the court may by the order give such directions and make such provisions as seem just for placing the company and all other persons in the same position as nearly as may be as if the name of the company had not been struck off.

(6) A notice to be sent under this section to a company may be addressed to the company at its registered office, or, if no office has been registered, to the care of some officer of the company or, if there is no officer of the company whose name and address are known to the Registrar, may be sent to each of the persons who signed the memorandum, addressed to him at the address mentioned in the memorandum.

(7) No company shall keep a register of members at any place outside Hong Kong unless it is empowered to do so by virtue of a licence issued to the company under this section and, if default is made in complying with this subsection, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine and, for continued default, to a daily default fine.

Regulations as to branch register

104.(1) A branch register shall be deemed to be part of the company's register of members (in this section called the principal register).

(2) It shall be kept in the same manner in which the principal register is by this Ordinance required to be kept, except that the advertisement before closing the register shall be inserted in some newspaper circulating in the district where the branch register is kept.

(3) The company shall -

- (a) transmit to its registered office a copy of every entry in its branch register as soon as may be after the entry is made; and
- (b) cause to be kept at the place where the company's principal register is kept a duplicate of its branch register duly entered up from time to time.

Every duplicate shall for all the purposes of this Ordinance be deemed to be part of the principal register.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this section with respect to the duplicate register, the shares registered in a branch register shall be distinguished from the shares registered in the principal register, and no transaction with respect to any shares registered in a branch register shall, during the continuance of that registration, be registered in any other register.

(5) A company may discontinue to keep a branch register, and thereupon all entries in that register shall be transferred to some other branch register kept by the company or to the principal register.

(6) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, any company may, by its articles, make such provisions as it may think fit respecting the keeping of branch registers.

(7) If default is made in complying with subsection (3), the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine and, for continued default, to a daily default fine; and where, by virtue of proviso (b) to section 95(2), the principal register is kept at the office of some person other than the company and by reason of any default of his the company fails to comply with subsection (3)(b), he shall be liable to the same penalty as if he were an officer of the company who was in default.

111.(1) Every company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than 15 months, or such longer period as the Registrar may in any particular case authorize in writing, shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the company and the next:

Provided that, so long as the company holds its first annual general meeting within 18 months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year.

(2) If default is made in holding a meeting of the company in accordance with subsection (1), the court may, on the application of any member of the company, call, or direct the calling of, a general meeting of the company and give such ancillary or consequential directions as the court thinks expedient, including directions modifying or supplementing, in relation to the calling, holding and conducting of the meeting, the operation of the company’s articles, and including a direction that 1 member of the company present in person or by proxy shall be deemed to constitute a meeting.

(3) A general meeting held in pursuance of subsection (2) shall, subject to any directions of the court, be deemed to be an annual general meeting of the company; but, where a meeting so held is not held in the year in which the default in holding the company’s annual general meeting occurred, the meeting so held shall not be treated as the annual general meeting for the year in which it is held unless at that meeting the company resolves that it shall be so treated.

113.(1) The directors of a company, notwithstanding anything in its articles shall, on the requisition of members of the company holding at the date of the deposit of the requisition not less than one-twentieth of such of the paid-up capital of the company as at the date of the deposit carries the right of voting at general meetings of the company, or, in the case of a company not having a share capital, members of the company representing not less than one-twentieth of the total voting rights of all the members having at the said date a right to vote at general meetings of the company, forthwith proceed duly to convene an extraordinary general meeting of the company.

(2) The requisition must state the objects of the meeting, and must be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the registered office of the company, and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more requisitionists.

(3) If the directors do not within 21 days from the date of the deposit of the requisition proceed duly to convene a meeting for a day not more than 28 days after the date on which the notice convening the meeting is given, the requisitionists, or any of them representing more than one-half of the total voting rights of all of them, may themselves convene a meeting, but any meeting so convened shall not be held after the expiration of 3 months from the said date.

(4) A meeting convened under this section by the requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are to be convened by directors.

(5) Any reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionists by reason of the failure of the directors duly to convene a meeting shall be repaid to the requisitionists by the company, and any sum so repaid shall be retained by the company out of any sums due or to become due from the company by way of fees or other remuneration in respect of their services to such of the directors as were in default.

(6) For the purposes of this section, the directors shall, in the case of a meeting at which a resolution is to be proposed as a special resolution, be deemed not to have duly convened the meeting if they do not give such notice thereof as is required by section 116.

Length of notice for calling meetings

114.(1) Any provision of a company's articles shall be void in so far as it provides for the calling of a meeting of the company (other than an adjourned meeting) by a shorter notice than -

- (a) in the case of the annual general meeting, 21 days' notice in writing; and
- (b) in the case of a meeting which is neither an annual general meeting nor a meeting for the passing of a special resolution, 14 days' notice in writing in the case of a company other than an unlimited company and 7 days' notice in writing in the case of an unlimited company.

(2) Save in so far as the articles of a company make other provision in that behalf (not being a provision avoided by subsection (1)) a meeting of the company (other than an adjourned meeting) may be called -

- (a) in the case of the annual general meeting, by 21 days' notice in writing; and
- (b) in the case of a meeting which is neither an annual general meeting nor a meeting for the passing of a special resolution, by 14 days' notice in writing in the case of a company other than an unlimited company and by 7 days' notice in writing in the case of an unlimited company.

(3) A meeting of a company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in subsection (2) or in the company's articles, as the case may be, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed -

- (a) in the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having the right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent in nominal value of the shares giving a right to attend and vote at the meeting, or, in the case of a company not having a share capital, together representing not less than 95 per cent of the total voting rights at the meeting of all the members.

General provisions as to meetings and votes

114A.(1) Subject to sections 114AA, 155B and 163D, the following provisions shall have effect in so far as the articles of the company do not make other provision in that behalf -

- (a) notice of the meeting of a company shall be served on every member of the company in the manner in which notices are required to be served by Table A, and for the purpose of this paragraph the expression "Table A" (A 表) means that Table as for the time being in force;
- (b) 2 or more members holding not less than one-tenth in nominal value of the issued share capital or, if the company has not a share capital, not less than 5 per cent in number of the members of the company may call a meeting;
- (c) 2 members personally present shall be a quorum;

- (d) any member elected by the members present at a meeting may be chairman thereof;
- (e) in the case of a company originally having a share capital; every member shall have 1 vote in respect of each share or each $100 of stock held by him, and in any other case every member shall have 1 vote.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the articles of a company -

- (a) in the case of a company the capital of which is divided into shares which are listed on a recognized stock market, notice of every general meeting of the company shall be served on any member not entitled to vote thereat at the same time as notice of the meeting is served on members who are so entitled:

Provided that where a meeting is called at any time by shorter notice than that specified in section 114(2) or in the company's articles, service of the notice required by this paragraph shall be deemed to be in compliance with this paragraph if such notice is served as soon as practicable after that time;

- (b) where any shares in a company are held in trust for that company, such shares shall not, for so long as they are so held, confer any right to vote at meetings of the company.

(3) The articles of a company shall, if the articles so provide, apply in relation to the service by the company of notices under subsection (2)(a) and in determining the time at which such service shall be deemed to be effected.

Quorum where company has only one member

114AA. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the articles of a company, if the company has only one member, one member present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum of a meeting of the company.

Power of court to order meeting

114B.(1) If for any reason it is impracticable to call a meeting of a company in any manner in which meetings of that company may be called, or to conduct the meeting of the company in manner prescribed by the articles or this Ordinance, the court may, either of its own motion or on the application of any director of the company or of any member of the company who would be entitled to vote at the meeting, order a meeting of the company to be called, held and conducted in such manner as the court thinks fit, and where any such order is made may give such ancillary or consequential directions as it thinks expedient, including a direction that 1 member of the company present in person or by proxy shall be deemed to constitute a meeting.

(2) Any meeting called, held and conducted in accordance with an order under subsection (1) shall for all purposes be deemed to be a meeting of the company duly called, held and conducted.

(3) The legal personal representative of a deceased member of a company shall, for the purposes of this section, be treated in all respects as a member of the company having the same rights with respect to attending and voting at a meeting of the company as such deceased member would, if living, have had.

Proxies

114C.(1) Subject to subsection (1A), any member of a company entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the company shall be entitled to appoint another person (whether a member or not) as his proxy to attend and vote instead of him, and a proxy so appointed shall also have the same right as the member to speak at the meeting.

(1A) Unless the articles otherwise provide -

- (a) a proxy shall not be entitled to vote except on a poll; and
- (b) subsection (1) shall not apply in the case of a company not having a share capital.

(2) The right of a member of a company having a share capital to appoint a proxy shall include the right to appoint separate proxies to represent respectively such number of the shares held by him as may be specified in their instruments of appointment; but (without prejudice to the appointment of alternates) the number of proxies so appointed by any person to attend on the same occasion shall not, unless the articles otherwise provide, exceed 2.

(3) In every notice calling a meeting of a company having a share capital there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy or, where that is allowed, 1 or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him, and that a proxy need not also be a member; and if default is made in complying with this subsection as respects any meeting, every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine.

(4) Any provision contained in a company's articles shall be void in so far as it would have the effect of requiring the instrument appointing a proxy, or any other document necessary to show the validity or otherwise relating to the appointment of a proxy, to be received by the company or any other person more than 48 hours before a meeting or adjourned meeting in order that the appointment may be effective thereat.

(5) If, for the purpose of any meeting of a company, invitations to appoint as proxy a person or 1 of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the company's expense to some only of the members entitled to be sent a notice of the meeting and to vote thereat by proxy, every officer of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits their issue as aforesaid shall be liable to a fine:

Provided that an officer shall not be liable under this subsection by reason only of the issue to a member at his request in writing of a form of appointment naming the proxy or of a list of persons willing to act as proxy if the form or list is available on request in writing to every member entitled to vote at the meeting by proxy.

(6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the articles of a company, any form issued to a member of the company by the directors for use by him for appointing a proxy to attend and vote at a meeting of the company shall be such as to enable the member, according to his intention, to instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against (or, in default of instructions, to exercise his discretion in respect of) each resolution dealing with any special business to be transacted at the meeting.

(7) In subsection (6) "special business" means -

- (a) all business transacted at an extraordinary general meeting; and
- (b) all business transacted at an annual general meeting except the declaration of a dividend, the consideration of the accounts and the reports of the directors and auditors, the election of directors in place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors.

(8) This section shall apply to meetings of any class of members of a company as it applies to general meetings of the company.

Right to demand a poll

114D.(1) Any provision contained in a company's articles shall be void in so far as it would have the effect either -

- (a) of excluding the right to demand a poll at a general meeting on any question other than the election of the chairman of the meeting or the adjournment of the meeting; or
- (b) of making ineffective a demand for a poll on any such question which is made either -
 - (i) by not less than 5 members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (ii) by a member or members representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (iii) by a member or members holding shares in the company conferring a right to vote at the meeting, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

(2) The instrument appointing a proxy to vote at a meeting of a company shall be deemed also to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll, and for the purposes of subsection (1) a demand by a person as proxy for a member shall be the same as a demand by the member.

Voting on a poll

114E. On a poll taken at a meeting of a company or a meeting of any class of members of a company, a member entitled to more than 1 vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

Representation of companies at meetings of other companies and of creditors

115.(1) A corporation may by resolution of its directors or other governing body -

- (a) if it is a member of a company, authorize such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the company or at any meeting of any class of members of the company;
- (b) if it is a creditor (including a holder of debentures) of a company, authorize such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of any creditors of the company held in pursuance of this Ordinance or of any rules made thereunder, or in pursuance of the provisions contained in any debenture or trust deed or other instrument, as the case may be.

(1A) A recognized clearing house within the meaning of section 1 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap 571) may, if it or its nominee is a member of a company, authorize such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative or representatives, as the case may be, at any meeting of the company or at any meeting of any class of members of the company provided that, if more than one person is so authorized, the authorization shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such person is so authorized.

(2) A person authorized under subsection (1) shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual shareholder, creditor, or holder of debentures, of the company.

(3) A person authorized under subsection (1A) shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the recognized clearing house (or its nominee) which he represents as that clearing house (or its nominee) could exercise if it were an individual shareholder of the company.

Circulation of members' resolutions, etc.

115A.(1) Subject to this section, it shall be the duty of a company, on the requisition in writing of such number of members as is hereinafter specified and (unless the company otherwise resolves) at the expense of the requisitionists -

- (a) to give to members of the company entitled to receive notice of the next annual general meeting notice of any resolution which may properly be moved and is intended to be moved at that meeting;
- (b) to circulate to members entitled to have notice of any general meeting sent to them any statement of not more than 1000 words with respect to the matter referred to in any proposed resolution or the business to be dealt with at that meeting.

(2) The number of members necessary for a requisition under subsection (1) shall be -

- (a) any number of members representing not less than one-fortieth of the total voting rights of all members having at the date of the requisition a right to vote at the meeting to which the requisition relates; or
- (b) not less than 50 members holding shares in the company on which there has been paid up an average sum, per member, of not less than $2000.

(3) Notice of any such resolution shall be given, and any such statement shall be circulated, to members of the company entitled to have notice of the meeting sent to them by serving a copy of the resolution or statement on each such member in any manner permitted for service of notice of the meeting, and notice of any such resolution shall be given to any other member of the company by giving notice of the general effect of the resolution in any manner permitted for giving him notice of meetings of the company:

Provided that the copy shall be served, or notice of the effect of the resolution shall be given, as the case may be, in the same manner and, so far as practicable, at the same time as notice of the meeting and, where it is not practicable for it to be served or given at that time, it shall be served or given as soon as practicable thereafter.

(4) A company shall not be bound under this section to give notice of any resolution or to circulate any statement unless -

- (a) a copy of the requisition signed by the requisitionists (or 2 or more copies which between them contain the signatures of all the requisitionists) is deposited at the registered office of the company -
 - (i) in the case of a requisition requiring notice of a resolution, not less than 6 weeks before the meeting; and
 - (ii) in the case of any other requisition, not less than 1 week before the meeting; and
- (b) there is deposited or tendered with the requisition a sum reasonably sufficient to meet the company's expenses in giving effect thereto:

Provided that if, after a copy of a requisition requiring notice of a resolution has been deposited at the registered office of the company, an annual general meeting is called for a date 6 weeks or less after the copy has been deposited, the copy though not deposited within the time required by this subsection shall be deemed to have been properly deposited for the purposes thereof.

(5) The company shall also not be bound under this section to circulate any statement if, on the application either of the company or of any other person who claims to be aggrieved, the court is satisfied that the rights conferred by this section are being abused to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter; and the court may order the company's costs on an application under this section to be paid in whole or in part by the requisitionists, notwithstanding that they are not parties to the application.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in the company's articles, the business which may be dealt with at an annual general meeting shall include any resolution of which notice is given in accordance with this section, and for the purposes of this subsection notice shall be deemed to have been so given notwithstanding the accidental omission, in giving it, of 1 or more members.

(4) Where compliance with the requirements of the Tenth Schedule and other requirements of this Ordinance as to the matters to be included in a company's balance sheet and profit and loss account or in a statement annexed to those accounts -

- (a) would not be sufficient to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs or the profit or loss of the company; or

(2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) -

- (a)* group accounts shall not be required where the company is at the end of its financial year the wholly owned subsidiary of another body corporate; and
- (b)* group accounts need not deal with a subsidiary of the company if the company’s directors are of opinion that -
 - (i)* it is impracticable, or would be of no real value to members of the company, in view of the insignificant amount involved, or would involve expense or delay out of proportion to the value to members of the company; or
 - (ii)* the result would be misleading, or harmful to the business of the company or any of its subsidiaries; or
 - (iii)* the business of the holding company and that of the subsidiary are so different that they cannot reasonably be treated as a single undertaking;

and, if the directors are of such an opinion about each of the company’s subsidiaries, group accounts shall not be required:

Provided that the approval of the Financial Secretary shall be required for not dealing in group accounts with a subsidiary on the ground that the result would be harmful or on the ground of the difference between the business of the holding company and that of the subsidiary.

(3) If any person being a director of a company fails to take all reasonable steps to secure compliance as respects the company with the provisions of this section, he shall, in respect of each offence, be liable to imprisonment and a fine:

(2) If the company's directors are of opinion that it is better for the purpose -

- (a) of presenting the same or equivalent information about the state of affairs and profit or loss of the company and those subsidiaries; and
- (b) of so presenting it that it may be readily appreciated by the company's members, the group accounts may be prepared in a form other than that required by subsection (1), and in particular may consist of more than one set of consolidated accounts dealing respectively with the company and one group of subsidiaries and with other groups of subsidiaries, or of separate accounts dealing with each of the subsidiaries, or of statements expanding the information about the subsidiaries in the company's own accounts, or any combination of those forms.

(3) Without prejudice to subsection (1), the group accounts, if prepared as consolidated accounts, shall comply with the requirements of the Tenth Schedule, so far as applicable thereto, and if not so prepared shall give the same or equivalent information.

(4) Where compliance with the requirements of the Tenth Schedule and other requirements of this Ordinance as to the matters to be included in a company's group accounts or in a statement annexed to the group accounts -

- (a) would not be sufficient to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs or the profit or loss of the company and its subsidiaries; or
- (b) is inconsistent with the requirement to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs or the profit or loss of the company and its subsidiaries, then -

- (c) in the case of paragraph (a), additional information that is necessary to give a true and fair view thereof shall be given in the group accounts or statement, as the case may require; and

- (d) in the case of paragraph (b), the directors of the company shall depart from those requirements to the extent that is necessary to give a true and fair view thereof with the reasons for and particulars and effects of such departure to be given in a statement annexed to the company's group accounts.

(4) If, at the end of its financial year, a company falls within subsection (1) or (2) in relation to more bodies corporate than one, and the number of them is such that, in the opinion of the directors, compliance with that subsection would result in particulars of excessive length being given, compliance with that subsection shall not be requisite except in the case of the bodies, carrying on the businesses the results of the carrying on of which, in the opinion of the directors, principally affected the amount of the profit or loss of the company or the amount of its assets.

(6) A company may by ordinary resolution remove an auditor before the expiration of his term of office, notwithstanding anything in any agreement between it and him; and, except in the case of a private company, where a resolution removing an auditor is passed at a general meeting of a company, the company shall within 14 days give notice of that fact in the specified form to the Registrar.

(9) The appointment of a firm by its firm name to be the auditors of a company shall be deemed to be an appointment of those persons who shall from time to time during the currency of the appointment be the partners in that firm as from time to time constituted and who are qualified for appointment as auditors of that company:

Provided that any such appointment shall lapse, and thereby create a casual vacancy in the office of auditor, if all those persons who were partners in the firm and qualified as aforesaid at the date of the appointment cease to be partners or so qualified before the period of the appointment expires.

(10) Nothing in subsection (6) shall be taken as depriving a person removed thereunder of compensation or damages payable to him in respect of the termination of his appointment as auditor or of any appointment terminating with that as auditor.

(11) Where a company’s auditor or auditors are holding office at the date of commencement of the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 1984 (6 of 1984), nothing in this section as amended by that Ordinance shall be taken as terminating their appointment, or as requiring either their reappointment or the appointment of other auditors, before the conclusion of the annual general meeting of the company held next after that date.

(5) Copies of the representations need not be sent out and the representations need not be read out at the meeting if, on the application either of the company or of any other person who claims to be aggrieved, the court is satisfied that the rights conferred by this section are being abused to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter; and the court may order the company's costs on an application under this subsection to be paid in whole or in part by the auditor, notwithstanding that he is not a party to the application.

(2) The leave of the court for the purpose of this section shall not be given unless notice of intention to apply therefor has been served on the Official Receiver and it shall be the duty of the Official Receiver, if he is of opinion that it is contrary to the public interest that any such application should be granted, to attend on the hearing of and oppose the granting of the application.

(5) On a resolution to remove a director before the expiration of his period of office no share shall, on a poll, carry a greater number of votes than it would carry in relation to the generality of matters to be voted on at a general meeting; and where a share carries special voting rights (that is to say, rights different from those carried by other shares of the same nominal value) in relation to some matters but not others, the reference in this subsection to the generality of matters to be voted on at a general meeting of the company shall be construed as a reference to the matters in relation to which the share carries no special voting rights.

(3) Where an order under this section makes any alteration in or addition to the memorandum or articles of a specified corporation, then, notwithstanding anything in any other provision of this Ordinance but subject to the provisions of the order, the specified corporation shall not have power without the leave of the court to make any further alteration in or addition to the memorandum or articles inconsistent with the provisions of the order; but, subject to the provisions of this subsection, the alterations or additions made by the order shall be of the same effect as if duly made by resolution of the specified corporation and the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply to the memorandum or articles as so altered or added to accordingly.

(6) Section 296 shall apply in relation to a petition under this section as it applies in relation to a winding-up petition.

(7) Where before the commencement of section 4 of Schedule 3 to the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 2004 (30 of 2004), a petition has been presented for an order under section 168A of the pre-amended Ordinance, that section of the pre-amended Ordinance shall continue to apply in relation to such a petition as if section 4 of Schedule 3 to the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 2004 (30 of 2004) had not been enacted.

Effect of Winding Up on antecedent and other Transactions

Fraudulent preference

266.(1) Any conveyance, mortgage, delivery of goods, payment, execution or other act relating to property made or done by or against a company within 6 months before the commencement of its winding up which, had it been made or done by or against an individual within 6 months before the presentation of a bankruptcy petition on which he is adjudged bankrupt, would be deemed in his bankruptcy a fraudulent preference, shall in the event of the company being wound up be deemed a fraudulent preference of its creditors and be invalid accordingly:

Provided that, in relation to things made or done before the commencement of the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 1984 (6 of 1984), this subsection shall have effect with the substitution, for references to 6 months, of references to 3 months.

(2) Any conveyance or assignment by a company of all its property to trustees for the benefit of all its creditors shall be void to all intents.

Liabilities and rights of certain fraudulently preferred persons

266A.(1) Where anything made or done after the commencement of the Companies (Amendment) Ordinance 1984 (6 of 1984) is void under section 266 as a fraudulent preference of a person interested in property mortgaged or charged to secure the company's debt, then (without prejudice to any rights or liabilities arising apart from this provision) the person preferred shall be subject to the same liabilities, and shall have the same rights, as if he had undertaken to be personally liable as surety for the debt to the extent of the charge on the property or the value of his interest, whichever is the less.

(2) The value of the said person's interest shall be determined as at the date of the transaction constituting the fraudulent preference, and shall be determined as if the interest were free of all incumbrances other than those to which the charge for the company's debt was then subject.

(3) On any application made to the court with respect to any payment on the ground that the payment was a fraudulent preference of a surety or guarantor, the court shall have jurisdiction to determine any questions with respect to the payment arising between the person to whom payment was made and the surety or guarantor and to grant relief in respect thereof, notwithstanding that it is not necessary so to do for the purposes of the winding up and for that purpose may give leave to bring in the surety or guarantor as a third party as in the case of an action for the recovery of the sum paid.

(4) Subsection (3) shall apply, with the necessary modifications, in relation to transactions other than the payment of money as it applies in relation to payments.

Fraudulent preference deemed to be an unfair preference

266B.(1) On and after the day section 36 of the Bankruptcy (Amendment) Ordinance 1996 (76 of 1996) (the "amending Ordinance") comes into operation, where the winding up of a company commences on or after that date -

- (a)* a reference in section 266 or 266A of this Ordinance to a fraudulent preference shall be deemed to be a reference to an unfair preference as provided for in section 50; and
- (b)* a reference in section 266 of this Ordinance to a period of 6 months shall be deemed to be a reference to a period of -
 - (i)* 6 months; or
 - (ii)* 2 years in the case of a person who is an associate as provided for in section 51B, of the Bankruptcy Ordinance (Cap 6) (the “principal Ordinance”).

(2) Where the winding up of a company commences before the amending Ordinance comes into operation, the provisions of the principal Ordinance as it existed before being amended by the amending Ordinance apply in respect of sections 266 and 266A of this Ordinance.

Effect of floating charge

267. Where a company is being wound up, a charge which, when created, was a floating charge on the undertaking or property of the company and which was also created within 12 months of the commencement of the winding up shall, unless it is proved that the company immediately after the creation of the charge was solvent, be invalid, except to the amount of any cash paid to the company at the time of or subsequently to the creation of, and in consideration for, the charge, together with interest on that amount at the rate specified in the charge or at the rate 12 per cent per annum whichever is the less.

Disclaimer of onerous property in case of company wound up

268.(1) Where any part of the property of a company which is being wound up consists of land of any tenure burdened with onerous covenants, of shares or stock in companies, of unprofitable contracts, or of any other property that is unsaleable, or not readily saleable, by reason of its binding the possessor thereof to the performance of any onerous act, or to the payment of any sum of money, the liquidator of the company, notwithstanding that he has endeavoured to sell or has taken possession of the property, or exercised any act of ownership in relation thereto, may, with the leave of the court and subject to the provisions of this section, by writing signed by him, at any time within 12 months after the commencement of the winding up or such extended period as may be allowed by the court, disclaim the property:

Provided that, where any such property has not come to the knowledge of the liquidator within 1 month after the commencement of the winding up, the power under this section of disclaiming the property may be exercised at any time within 12 months after he has become aware thereof or such extended period as may be allowed by the court.

(2) The disclaimer shall operate to determine, as from the date of disclaimer, the rights, interest, and liabilities of the company, and the property of the company, in or in respect of the property disclaimed, but shall not, except so far as is necessary for the purpose of releasing the company and the property of the company from liability, affect the rights or liabilities of any other person.

(3) The court, before or on granting leave to disclaim, may require such notices to be given to persons interested, and impose such terms as a condition of granting leave, and make such other order in the matter as the court thinks just.

(4) The liquidator shall not be entitled to disclaim any property under this section in any case where an application in writing has been made to him by any persons interested in the property requiring him to decide whether he will or will not disclaim, and the liquidator has not, within a period of 28 days after the receipt of the application or such further period as may be allowed by the court, given notice to the applicant that he intends to apply to the court for leave to disclaim, and, in the case of a contract, if the liquidator, after such an application as aforesaid, does not within the said period or further period disclaim the contract, the company shall be deemed to have adopted it.

(5) The court may, on the application of any person who is, as against the liquidator, entitled to the benefit or subject to the burden of a contract made with the company, make an order rescinding the contract on such terms as to payment by or to either party of damages for the non-performance of the contract, or otherwise as the court thinks just, and any damages payable under the order to any such person may be proved by him as a debt in the winding up.

(6) The court may, on an application by any person who either claims any interest in any disclaimed property or is under any liability not discharged by this Ordinance in respect of any disclaimed property and on hearing any such persons as it thinks fit, make an order for the vesting of the property in or the delivery of the property to any persons entitled thereto, or to whom it may seem just that the property should be delivered by way of compensation for such liability as aforesaid, or a trustee for him, and on such terms as the court thinks just, and on any such vesting order being made, the property comprised therein shall vest accordingly in the person therein named in that behalf without any conveyance or assignment for the purpose:

Provided that, where the property disclaimed is of a leasehold nature, the court shall not make a vesting order in favour of any person claiming under the company, whether as under-lessee or as a person entitled to a mortgage or charge, except upon the terms of making that person -

- (a) subject to the same liabilities and obligations as those to which the company was subject under the lease in respect of the property at the commencement of the winding up; or
- (b) if the court thinks fit, subject only to the same liabilities and obligations as if the lease had been assigned to that person at that date, and in either event (if the case so requires) as if the lease had comprised only the property comprised in the vesting order, and any under-lessee or person entitled to a mortgage or charge who declines to accept a vesting order upon such terms shall be excluded from all interest in and security upon the property, and, if there is no person claiming under the company who is willing to accept an order upon such terms, the court shall have power to vest the estate and interest of the company in the property in any person liable either personally or in a representative character, and either alone or jointly with the company to perform the lessee's covenants in the lease, freed and discharged from all estates, incumbrances and interests created therein by the company.

(7) Any person injured by the operation of a disclaimer under this section shall be deemed to be a creditor of the company to the amount of the injury, and may accordingly prove the amount as a debt in the winding up.

Restriction of rights of creditor as to execution or attachment in case of company being wound up

269.(1) Where a creditor has issued execution against the goods or lands of a company or has attached any debt due to the company, and the company is subsequently wound up, he shall not be entitled to retain the benefit of the execution or attachment against the liquidator in the winding up of the company unless he has completed the execution or attachment before the commencement of the winding up:

Provided that -

- (a) where any creditor has had notice of a meeting having been called at which a resolution for voluntary winding up is to be proposed, the date on which the creditor so had notice shall for the purposes of the foregoing provision be substituted for the date of the commencement of the winding up; and
- (b) a person who purchases in good faith under a sale by the bailiff any goods of a company on which an execution has been levied shall in all cases acquire a good title to them against the liquidator; and
- (c) the rights conferred by this subsection on the liquidator may be set aside by the court in favour of the creditor to such extent and subject to such terms as the court may think fit.

(2) For the purposes of this Ordinance -

- (a) an execution against goods is completed by seizure and sale or by the making of a charging order under section 20 of the High Court Ordinance (Cap 4);
- (b) an attachment of a debt is completed by the receipt of the debt; and

- (c) an execution against land is completed by seizure, by the appointment of a receiver, or by the making of a charging order under the said section 20.

(3) In this section, “goods” includes all chattels personal, and “bailiff” includes any officer charged with the execution of a writ or other process.

Duties of bailiff as to goods taken in execution

270.(1) Subject to subsection (2A), where any goods of a company are taken in execution, and, before the sale thereof or the completion of the execution by the receipt or recovery of the full amount of the levy, notice is served on the bailiff that a provisional liquidator has been appointed or that a winding-up order has been made or that a resolution for voluntary winding up has been passed, the bailiff shall, on being so required, deliver the goods and any money seized or received in part satisfaction of the execution to the liquidator, but the costs of the execution shall be a first charge on the goods or money so delivered, and the liquidator may sell the goods, or a sufficient part thereof, for the purpose of satisfying that charge.

(2) Subject to subsection (2A), where under an execution the goods of a company are sold or money is paid in order to avoid sale, the bailiff shall deduct the costs of the execution from the proceeds of the sale or the money paid and retain the balance for 14 days, and if within that time notice is served on him of a petition for the winding up of the company having been presented or of a meeting having been called at which there is to be proposed a resolution for the voluntary winding up of the company and an order is made or a resolution is passed, as the case may be, for the winding up of the company, the bailiff shall pay the balance to the liquidator, who shall be entitled to retain it as against the execution creditor.

(2A) The rights conferred by this section on the liquidator may be set aside by the court in favour of the creditor to such extent and subject to such terms as the court thinks fit.

(3) In this section, “goods” includes all chattels personal, and “bailiff” includes any officer charged with the execution of a writ or other process.

(2) Where any person pawns, pledges or disposes of any property in circumstances which amount to an offence under subsection (1)(o), any person who takes in pawn or pledge or otherwise receives the property knowing it to be pawned, pledged, or disposed of in such circumstances as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction thereof liable to be punished in the same way as if he had received the property knowing it to have been obtained in circumstances amounting to an offence.

Liability where proper accounts not kept

274.(1) If where a company is wound up it is shown that proper books of account were not kept by the company throughout the period of 2 years immediately preceding the commencement of the winding up, or the period between the incorporation of the company and the commencement of the winding up, whichever is the shorter, every officer of the company who is in default shall, unless he shows that he acted honestly and that in the circumstances in which the business of the company was carried on the default was excusable, be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment and a fine.

(2) For the purposes of this section, proper books of account shall be deemed not to have been kept in the case of any company if there have not been kept such books or accounts as are necessary, to exhibit and explain the transactions and financial position of the trade or business of the company, including books containing entries from day to day in sufficient detail of all cash received and cash paid, and, where the trade or business has involved dealings in goods, statements of the annual stocktakings and (except in the case of goods sold by way of ordinary retail trade) of all goods sold and purchased, showing the goods and the buyers and sellers thereof in sufficient detail to enable those goods and those buyers and sellers to be identified.

Responsibility of directors for fraudulent trading

275.(1) If in the course of the winding up of a company it appears that any business of the company has been carried on with intent to defraud creditors of the company or creditors of any other person or for any fraudulent purpose, the court, on the application of the Official Receiver, or the liquidator or any creditor or contributory of the company, may, if it thinks proper so to do, declare that any persons who were knowingly parties to the carrying on of the business in manner aforesaid shall be personally responsible, without any limitation of liability, for all or any of the debts or other liabilities of the company as the court may direct.

(1A) On the hearing of an application under subsection (1) the Official Receiver or the liquidator, as the case may be, may himself give evidence or call witnesses.

(2) Where the court makes any such declaration, it may give such further directions as it thinks proper for the purpose of giving effect to that declaration, and in particular may make provision for making the liability of any person under the declaration a charge on any debt or obligation due from the company to him, or on any mortgage or charge or any interest in any mortgage or charge on any assets of the company held by or vested in him, or any company or person on his behalf, or any person claiming as assignee from or through the person liable or any such company or person, and may from time to time make such further order as may be necessary for the purpose of enforcing any charge imposed under this subsection.

For the purpose of this subsection, “assignee” includes any person to whom or in whose favour, by the directions of the person liable under the declaration, the debt, obligation, mortgage or charge was created, issued or transferred or the interest created, but does not include an assignee for valuable consideration (not including consideration by way of marriage) given in good faith and without notice of any of the matters on the ground of which the declaration is made.

276.(1) If in the course of winding up a company it appears that any person who has taken part in the formation or promotion of the company, or any past or present officer or liquidator or receiver of the company, has misapplied or retained or become liable or accountable for any money or property of the company, or been guilty of any misfeasance or breach of duty in relation to the company which is actionable at the suit of the company, the court may, on the application of the Official Receiver, or of the liquidator, or of any creditor or contributory, examine into the conduct of the promoter, officer, liquidator or receiver, and compel him to repay or restore the money or property or any part thereof respectively with interest at such rate as the court thinks just, or to contribute such sum to the assets of the company by way of compensation in respect of the misapplication, retainer, misfeasance, or breach of trust as the court thinks just.

(2) The provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding that the offence is one for which the offender may be criminally liable.

(3) Repealed

Prosecution of delinquent officers and members of company

277.(1) If it appears to the court in the course of a winding up by the court that any past or present officer or member of the company has been guilty of any offence in relation to the company for which he is criminally liable, the court may, either on the application of any person interested in the winding up or of its own motion, direct the liquidator to refer the matter to the Secretary for Justice.

(2) If it appears to the liquidator in the course of a voluntary winding up that any past or present officer or member of the company has been guilty of any offence in relation to the company for which he is criminally liable, he shall forthwith report the matter to the Secretary for Justice, and shall furnish to the Secretary for Justice such information and give to him such access to and facilities for inspecting and taking copies of any documents, being information or documents in the possession or under the control of the liquidator and relating to the matter in question, as he may require.

(3) If it appears to the court in the course of a voluntary winding up that any past or present officer or member of the company has been guilty as aforesaid, and that no report with respect to the matter has been made by the liquidator to the Secretary for Justice under subsection (2), the court may, on the application of any person interested in the winding up or of its own motion, direct the liquidator to make such a report, and on a report being made accordingly the provisions of this section shall have effect as though the report had been made in pursuance of the provisions of subsection (2).

(4) If, where any matter is reported or referred to the Secretary for Justice under this section, he considers that the case is one in which a prosecution ought to be instituted, he shall institute proceedings accordingly, and it shall be the duty of the liquidator and of every officer and agent of the company past and present (other than the defendant in the proceedings) to give him all assistance in connexion with the prosecution which he is reasonably able to give.

For the purposes of this subsection, the expression “agent” in relation to a company shall be deemed to include any banker or solicitor of the company and any person employed by the company as auditor, whether that person is or is not an officer of the company.

(5) If any person fails or neglects to give assistance in manner required by subsection (4), the court may, on the application of the Secretary for Justice, direct that person to comply with the requirements of the said subsection, and where any such application is made with respect to a liquidator the court may, unless it appears that the failure or neglect to comply was due to the liquidator not having in his hands sufficient assets of the company to enable him so to do, direct that costs of the application shall be borne by the liquidator personally.

Supplement Provisions as to Winding Up

278. No person being an undischarged bankrupt and no body corporate shall be qualified for appointment as liquidator of a company, whether in a winding up by the court or in a voluntary winding up, and -

[sections 2, 11, 114A, 322 & 360]

PART I - REGULATIONS FOR MANAGEMENT OF A COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES, NOT BEING A PRIVATE COMPANY

Interpretation

1. In these regulations -

“Ordinance” means the Companies Ordinance (Cap 32);

“seal” means the common seal of the company;

Expressions used in these regulations referring to writing shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as including references to printing, lithography, photography and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form.

Wherever any provision of these regulations (except a provision for the appointment of a proxy) requires that a communication as between the company, its directors or members be effected in writing, the requirement may be satisfied by the communication being given in the form of an electronic record if the person to whom the communication is given consents to it being given to him in that form.

Wherever any provision of these regulations requires that a meeting of the company, its directors or members be held, the requirement may be satisfied by the meeting being held by such lawful electronic means and in such manner as may be agreed by the company in general meeting.

Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions used in these regulations shall have the same meaning as in the Ordinance or any statutory modification thereof in force at the date at which these regulations become binding on the company.

Share Capital and Variation of Rights

2. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares, any share in the company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise as the company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine.

3. Subject to sections 49 to 49S of the Ordinance, the company may issue shares on the terms that they are, or at the option of the company or the holder of the shares are liable, to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as may be provided by the company’s articles of association.

4. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class may, whether or not the company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class.

5. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

6. The company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by section 46 of the Ordinance, provided that the rate per cent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by the said section and the rate of the commission shall not exceed the rate of 10 per cent of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the same is paid are issued or an amount equal to 10 per cent of such price (as the case may be). Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

7. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognized by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and the company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as by these regulations or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

8. Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall be entitled without payment to receive within 2 months after allotment or lodgment of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide) one certificate for all his shares or several certificates each for 1 or more of his shares upon payment of $5 for every certificate after the first or such less sum as the directors shall from time to time determine. Every certificate shall be under the seal, or under the official seal kept by the company under section 73A of the Ordinance, and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon. Provided that in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons the company shall not be bound to issue more than 1 certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to 1 of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.

9. If a share certificate be defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of a fee of $5 or such less sum and on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out-of-pocket expenses of the company of investigating evidence as the directors think fit.

10. Repealed

Lien

11. The company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares (other than fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person for all moneys presently payable by him or his estate to the company; but the directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this regulation. The company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.

12. The company may sell, in such manner as the directors think fit, any shares on which the company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of 14 days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy.

13. To give effect to any such sale the directors may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprized in any such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

14. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

Calls on Shares

- 15. The directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than 1 month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call, and each member shall (subject to receiving at least 14 days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the directors may determine.
- 16. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorizing the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.
- 17. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
- 18. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding 10 per cent per annum as the directors may determine, but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
- 19. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these regulations be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
- 20. The directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.
- 21. The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding (unless the company in general meeting shall otherwise direct) 8 per cent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the directors and the member paying such sum in advance.

Transfer of Shares

- 22. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.
- 23. Subject to such of the restrictions of these regulations as may be applicable, any member may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the directors may approve.
- 24. The directors may decline to register the transfer of a share (not being a fully paid share) to a person of whom they shall not approve, and they may also decline to register the transfer of a share on which the company has a lien.
- 25. The directors may also decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless -
- (a) a fee of $5 or such lesser sum as the directors may from time to time require is paid to the company in respect thereof;

- (b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and
- (c) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of share.

26. If the directors refuse to register a transfer they shall within 2 months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company send to the transferor and transferee notice of the refusal.

27. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the directors may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended in any year for more than 30 days or, where the period for closing the register of members is extended in respect of that year under section 99(2)(a) of the Ordinance, for more than that extended period.

28. The company shall be entitled to charge a fee not exceeding $5 on the registration of every probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, or other instrument.

Transmission of Shares

29. In case of the death of a member the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.

30. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that member before his death or bankruptcy, as the case may be.

31. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.

32. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company:

Provided always that the directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within 90 days the directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

33. Any person to whom the right to any shares in the company has been transmitted by operation of law shall, if the directors refuse to register the transfer, be entitled to call on the directors to furnish within 28 days a statement of the reasons for the refusal.

Forfeiture of Shares

34. If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.

35. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of 14 days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

36. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect.

37. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit.

38. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were payable by him to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.

39. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a director or the secretary of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

40. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Conversion of Shares into Stock

41. The company may by ordinary resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.

42. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit; and the directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

43. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

44. Such of the regulations of the company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

Alteration of Capital

45. The company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.

46. The company may by ordinary resolution -

- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
- (b) sub-divide its existing shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum of association subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of section 53(1)(d) of the Ordinance;
- (c) cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.

47. The company may by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve fund or any share premium account in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorized, and consent required, by law.

Allotment of Shares

48. The directors shall not exercise any power conferred on them to allot shares in the company without the prior approval of the company in general meeting where such approval is required by section 57B of the Ordinance.

General Meetings

49. The Company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the company and that of the next. Provided that so long as the company holds its first annual general meeting within 18 months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the directors shall appoint.

50. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

51. The directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting, and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by section 113 of the Ordinance. If at any time there are not within Hong Kong sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any director or any 2 members of the company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the directors.

Notice of General Meetings

52. An annual general meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by 21 days' notice in writing at the least, and a meeting of the company other than an annual general meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by 14 days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, and shall be given, in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting, to such persons as are, under the regulations of the company, entitled to receive such notices from the company:

Provided that a meeting of the company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this regulation, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed -

- (a) in the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent in nominal value of the shares giving that right.

53. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

Proceedings at General Meetings

54. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and also all that is transacted at an annual general meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the directors and auditors, the election of directors in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors.

55. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business and continues to be present until the conclusion of the meeting; save as herein otherwise provided, 2 members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

56. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.

57. The chairman, if any, of the board of directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the company, or if there is no such chairman, or if he shall not be present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act or is absent from Hong Kong or has given notice to the company of his intention not to attend the meeting, the directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

58. If at any meeting no director is willing to act as chairman or if no director is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

59. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

60. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded -

- (a) by the chairman; or
- (b) by at least 2 members present in person or by proxy; or
- (c) by any member or members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- (d) by a member or members holding shares in the company conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

Unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

61. Except as provided in regulation 63, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Expressions referring to writing shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as including references to printing, lithography, photography, and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form.

Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these articles shall bear the same meaning as in the Ordinance or any statutory modification thereof in force at the date at which these articles become binding on the company.

Members

2. The number of members with which the company proposes to be registered is 500, but the directors may from time to time register an increase of members.

3. The founder members and such other persons as the directors shall admit to membership shall be members of the company.

General Meetings

4. The company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the company and that of the next. Provided that so long as the company holds its first annual general meeting within 18 months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the directors shall appoint.

5. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

6. The directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting, and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or, in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by section 113 of the Ordinance. If at any time there are not within Hong Kong sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any director or any 2 members of the company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the directors.

Notice of General Meetings

7. An annual general meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by 21 days' notice in writing at the least, and a meeting of the company other than an annual general meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by 14 days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business and shall be given, in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting, to such persons as are, under the articles of the company, entitled to receive such notices from the company:

Provided that a meeting of the company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this article be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed -

- (a) in the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together representing not less than 95 per cent of the total voting rights of all the members entitled to attend and vote at that meeting.

8. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and also all that is transacted at an annual general meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the directors and auditors, the election of directors in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors.

10. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business and continues to be present until the conclusion of the meeting; save as herein otherwise provided, 2 members present in person shall be a quorum.

11. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the members present shall be a quorum.

12. The chairman, if any, of the board of directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the company, or if there is no such chairman, or if he shall not be present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act or is absent from Hong Kong or has given notice to the company of his intention not to attend the meeting, the directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

16. Except as provided in article 18, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

21. No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all moneys payable by him to the company in his capacity as member, and which have been outstanding for more than 1 month after they fell due for payment, have been paid.

22. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

23. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorized in writing or, if the appointer is a corporation, either under seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorized. A proxy need not be a member of the company.

24. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the registered office of the company or at such other place within Hong Kong as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

Any corporation which is a member of the company may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorize such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the company, and the person so authorized shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the company.

Directors

30. The number of the directors and the names of the first directors shall be determined in writing by the founder members or a majority of them.

31. The remuneration of the directors shall from time to time be determined by the company in general meeting. Such remuneration shall be deemed to accrue from day to day. The directors shall also be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from meetings of the directors or any committee of the directors or general meetings of the company or in connexion with the business of the company.

Borrowing Powers

32. The directors may exercise all the powers of the company to borrow money, and to mortgage or charge its undertaking and property, or any part thereof, and to issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the company or of any third party.

Powers and Duties of Directors

33. The business of the company shall be managed by the directors, who may pay all expenses incurred in promoting and registering the company, and may exercise all such powers of the company as are not, by the Ordinance or by these articles, required to be exercised by the company in general meeting, subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Ordinance or these articles and to such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid provisions, as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting; but no regulation made by the company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

34. The directors may from time to time and at any time by power of attorney appoint any company, firm or person or body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the directors, to be the attorney or attorneys of the company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the directors under these articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit, and any such powers of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorney as the directors may think fit and may also authorize any such attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him.

All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for moneys paid to the company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as the directors shall from time to time by resolution determine.

36. The directors shall cause minutes to be made in books provided for the purpose -

(a) of all appointments of officers made by the directors;

- (b) of the names of the directors present at each meeting of the directors and of any committee of the directors;

38. At the first annual general meeting of the company all the directors shall retire from office, and at the annual general meeting in every subsequent year one-third of the directors for the time being, or, if their number is not 3 or a multiple of 3, then the number nearest one-third, shall retire from office.

39. The directors to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election, but as between persons who became directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

40. A retiring director shall be eligible for re-election.

41. The company at the meeting at which a director retires in manner aforesaid may fill the vacated office by electing a person thereto, and in default the retiring director shall, if offering himself for re-election, be deemed to have been re-elected, unless at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such vacated office or unless a resolution for the re-election of such director shall have been put to the meeting and lost.

42. No person other than a director retiring at the meeting shall unless recommended by the directors be eligible for election to the office of director at any general meeting unless, not less than 3 nor more than 21 days before the date appointed for the meeting, there shall have been left at the registered office of the company notice in writing, signed by a member duly qualified to attend and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given, of his intention to propose such person for election, and also notice in writing signed by that person of his willingness to be elected.

43. The company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase or reduce the number of directors, and may also determine in what rotation the increased or reduced number is to go out of office.

44. The directors shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint any person to be a director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing directors, but so that the total number of directors shall not at any time exceed the number fixed in accordance with these articles. Any director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting, and shall then be eligible for re-election, but shall not be taken into account in determining the directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.

45. Such removal shall be without prejudice to any claim such director may have for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the company.

46. The company may by ordinary resolution appoint another person in place of a director removed from office under the immediately preceding article. Without prejudice to the powers of the directors under article 44 the company in general meeting may appoint any person to be a director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director. The person appointed to fill such a vacancy shall be subject to retirement at the same time as if he had become a director on the day on which the director in whose place he is appointed was last elected a director.

Proceedings of Directors

47. The directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn, and otherwise regulate their meetings, as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second or casting vote. A director may, and the secretary on the requisition of a director shall, at any time summon a meeting of the directors. 50. The directors may elect a chairman of their meetings and determine the period for which he is to hold office; but, if no such chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the chairman is not present within 5 minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the directors present may choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

52. A committee may elect a chairman of its meetings; if no such chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the chairman is not present within 5 minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the members present may choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

53. A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in the case of an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

54. All acts done by any meeting of the directors or of a committee of directors, or by any person acting as a director, shall notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such director or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a director.

55. A resolution in writing, signed by all the directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the directors, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors duly convened and held.

Secretary

56. The secretary shall be appointed by the directors for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit; and any secretary so appointed may be removed by them.

57. A provision of the Ordinance or these articles requiring or authorizing a thing to be done by or to a director and the secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as director and as, or in place of, the secretary.

The Seal

58. The directors shall provide for the safe custody of the seal, which shall only be used by the authority of the directors or of a committee of the directors authorized by the directors in that behalf, and every instrument to which the seal shall be affixed shall be signed by a director and shall be countersigned by the secretary or by a second director or by some other person appointed by the directors for the purpose.

Accounts

59. The directors shall cause proper books of account to be kept with respect to -

- (a) all sums of money received and expended by the company and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure takes place;
- (b) all sales and purchases of goods by the company; and
- (c) the assets and liabilities of the company.

Proper books shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs and to explain its transactions.

60. The books of account shall be kept at the registered office of the company, or, subject to section 121(3) of the Ordinance, at such other place or places as the directors think fit, and shall always be open to the inspection of the directors.

61. The directors shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of members not being directors, and no member (not being a director) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the company except as conferred by statute or authorized by the directors or by the company in general meeting.

62. The directors shall from time to time in accordance with sections 122, 124 and 129D of the Ordinance, cause to be prepared and to be laid before the company in general meeting such profit and loss accounts, balance sheets, group accounts (if any) and reports as are referred to in those sections.

63. A copy of every balance sheet (including every document required by law to be annexed thereto) which is to be laid before the company in general meeting, together with a copy of the directors' report and a copy of the auditor's report, shall not less than 14 days before the date of the meeting be sent to every member of, and every holder of debentures of, the company:

Provided that this article shall not require a copy of those documents to be sent to any person of whose address the company is not aware or to more than one of the joint holders of any debentures.

Audit

64. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with sections 131, 132, 133, 140, 140A, 140B and 141 of the Ordinance.

Notices

65. A notice may be given by the company to any member either personally or by sending it by post to him or to his registered address, or (if he has no registered address within Hong Kong) to the address, if any, within Hong Kong supplied by him to the company for the giving of notice to him. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected in the case of a notice of a meeting at the expiration of 48 hours after the letter containing the same is posted, and in any other case at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

66. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner hereinbefore authorized to -

- (a) every member except those members who (having no registered address within Hong Kong) have not supplied to the company an address within Hong Kong for the giving of notices to them; and

If, in a case in which the offer relates to shares of different classes, the transferee company has, during the period of 4 months beginning on the date of the offer, acquired not less than nine-tenths in value of the shares of any class for which the offer is made (by virtue of acceptances of the offer or, if the shares are listed on a recognized stock market, by virtue of acceptances of the offer or otherwise), the transferee company may give notice to the holder of any shares of that class which the transferee company has not acquired that it desires to acquire those shares.

3. Any notice under this Part shall be given in the specified form and in the prescribed manner and not later than 5 months after the date of the offer; and where such a notice is given to the holder of any shares the transferee company shall, subject to paragraph 4, be entitled and bound to acquire those shares on the terms of the offer.

4. Where a notice is given under this Part to the holder of any shares the court may, on an application made by him within 2 months from the date on which the notice was given, order that the transferee company shall not be entitled and bound to acquire the shares or specify terms of acquisition different from those of the offer.
